

Account: South Carolina State Parks

Content type: Facebook Page - Timeline posts

Record ID: 20131223South-Carolina-State-ParksTimeline-posts52748_10152087690463166

South Carolina State Parks

at 12:54:18 on 12/23/2013 UTC · 🌐

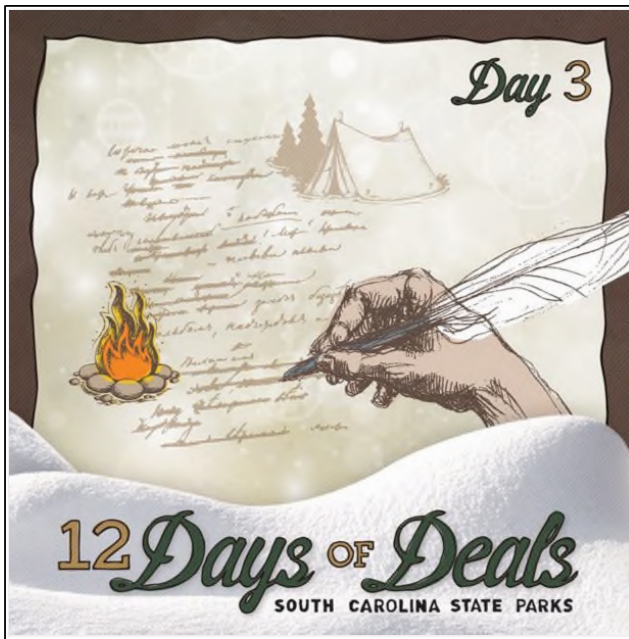

DEAL #3 - Dec. 23 - We're looking for your favorite SC State Park memory or story! Post for your chance to win one of five $25 state park gift cards! Here's how:

- 1) Post your favorite SC State Park memory or story in this thread
- 2) Be 18 years of age or older

We will randomly select 5 winners tonight at 8 p.m. We will announce the winners here on our page, so make sure to check back!

ALSO, the first 100 people to email your name and mailing address to gdavenport@scprt.com will receive a FREE Official SC State Park Guide! One guide per mailing address.

*This promotion is in no way sponsored, endorsed or administered by or associated with Facebook.

Tanya Craven Croft Our first camping trip in our new camper to Colleton State park and Ranger Larry Bonds and Mr. Eugene making us feel like family. Also Larry giving treats to our dog . This is why we consider this our second home 6 years later. Love this park

at 12:58:44 on 12/23/2013 UTC

Tim Johnson Spending time at Table Rock...being alone on both the Garrick Creek Trail....and the first mile of the Jocassee Trail inside the park.....some of....if not THE most clear headed time I have ever spent....Stopping along the trail(s) to read the Bible.....Also sitting on the porch as the welcome center....early of a morning in August (all of this in August) and watching the clouds that hid, for a brief time, the face of the great mountain, but knowing that even though briefly hidden, it remained strong....a lesson in faith.

at 12:58:55 on 12/23/2013 UTC

Paula Woody Went hiking to the top of Table Rock with some friends. We were attempting to do it during a school day because several of us had kids to pick up. We did make it to the top, but not as quickly as we had hoped. We all had Plan B, so it worked out okay. It was a fun day of cutting up with friends.

at 13:00:41 on 12/23/2013 UTC

Amie Cunningham My favorite memory in a sc state park is from summer 2013. My husband and I took our kids to devils fork state park and stayed in a tent,the weather was perfect.We rented canoes and had a picnic.We go here every summer and swim for the day or stay the weekend but going across that gorgeous lake in canoes on such a nice day is an awesome memory ☺

at 13:01:04 on 12/23/2013 UTC

Tricia Crawford We have been camping at SC State Parks for several years but this past summer is the first time we took my 73 year old my and my then 3 year old grandson. In was rather nervous because neither has ever been camping but we have made lifelong campers out of them. Sitting around the campfire making s'mores at Lee; walking the boardwalk at Cheraw; fishing at Little Pee Dee; playing on the playground at Santee... The memories are priceless!! And a couple weeks back when it was 20 degrees, my grandson said, "are we going camping this weekend?" Yep...he loves it too!! Thank you all for your hard work, love and friendship at the parks!! Merry Christmas

at 13:03:49 on 12/23/2013 UTC

Tammy Nevills Storms over Lake Jocassee at Devils Fork. There's nothing like standing on the shore and seeing/feeling the awesome power of nature :D

at 13:05:44 on 12/23/2013 UTC

Laci Brooks Atkinson I really enjoyed the time Katie Taylor Hicks and I got lost looking for Huntington Beach & Atalaya. When we finally got there, it was even more beautiful than we had imagined! I enjoyed walking around & reading all the info. Now, many years later, I still take my kids there!

at 13:06:40 on 12/23/2013 UTC

Gail Hicks We have so many wonderful memories of SC State Parks it is hard to choose just one, but on May 30, 1992 my husband and I got married at Redcliffe Plantation. The ceremony was held outside and it rained that day but right before the ceremony the weather cleared up and it was beautiful. Lots of family and friends were there and enjoyed the park. We also held our reception at Redcliffe, the staff was wonderful to us.

at 13:07:48 on 12/23/2013 UTC

Ginger Goforth Walking the rocks at the edge of Lake Jocassee at Devil's Fork with my little boy in the winter. Simple, quiet, beautiful.

at 13:08:48 on 12/23/2013 UTC

Barbara Bernard Roberts As a kid, we would go to Aiken State Park for fish fries with my dad's fishing club. I made friends that I still am friends with today. Now, I live 5 minutes from the park and enjoy taking my own kids there for swimming, walking, fishing, and picnicking.

at 13:10:21 on 12/23/2013 UTC

Deborah Adams Being in the military and coming home to Cheraw, SC and renting cabins at Cheraw State Park and having family reunions and get togethers. So much fun and so many memories! <3

at 13:12:44 on 12/23/2013 UTC

Pam Hawkins Tent camping with the kids at Devil's Fork. Swimming in the clear cool lake and jumping off the rock - over and over and over! So much fun!

at 13:13:05 on 12/23/2013 UTC

Laura Thimgan Holley Camping at Sadlers Creek! We learned so much about our family Easter of 2012. The rangers came to the site to remove a. Snake and talked to the kids about safety, a family had a Easter egg hunt for all the kids with hundreds of eggs. We had lots of family fishing times, other campers came over and had movie night and most of all it was great family time!

at 13:13:19 on 12/23/2013 UTC

Wendy Peoples Moore It was a warm night during the first ever Atalaya sleepover – yet the chill in the wind kept the goosebumps at attention and children shrieked with excitement. Why? Because a Ranger led walk along the beach was about to begin. Parents carefully sidestepped their way from Atalaya to the beach while their offspring ran in utter abandonment. Yet they all halted once the Ranger said “shhh”, as he had found a ghost crab. Adults stood back taking in the sounds of ocean waves crashing not too far away while boys and girls exclaimed with 'ooohs, eeewws, and even yuks' as they were told about the life of a ghost crab. But everyone quieted down to utter silence when it was time to release the crab. And once released, the creature ran about trying to find a safe haven while kids and adults alike either ran out of its way or tried to get a closer look. Laughter rode along those crashing waves and for just a moment, time slowed, and allowed that memory to settle into ourselves just as that ghost crab finally settled into the sand.

at 13:14:29 on 12/23/2013 UTC

Valli M. Finney My favorite memory is when I took our son, Matthew, (then 12) to the mountains for the first time EVER. He's a native Floridian, a flatlander, so you can imagine the tears I had falling down my cheeks when we went to Paris Mountain and had to go up and around to get to the top. He would NOT look out the window. If that wasn't bad enough, I took him to Caesars Head too. Oh my, I was totally crying by then. And I drive a stick shift. He STILL tells people that I took him up to 3,208 FEET. He will NEVER forget that number. Once his feet were on the ground, he was fine, but he was so danged funny and scared. And, because the park was full at Jones Gap, we had a wonderful creek-side picnic waiting for the parking lot to empty some. The park ranger was wonderful and spoke about the park and what all we could do there. We hit 14 state parks in three days during Spring Break in 2012. We had just moved from Florida in August 2011. We had such a great time seeing so many parks and plan to go back to them so we can explore more! We have been to about 25 parks in the two years we've been here and can't wait to see all the other ones!

at 13:15:58 on 12/23/2013 UTC

Josh Harris My favorite memory was proposing to my wife at Dreher Island State Park. We had a hammock hung between the trees overlooking the lake. While we were sitting in the hammock star gazing I proposed. She said yes and we've been camping at as many state parks as we can-making memories with each trip.

at 13:19:29 on 12/23/2013 UTC

Heather Doray Camping at Hunting Island New Years Eve! As the clock rang in a new year, we walked out onto the beach and the stars up in that sky, unbothered by city lights, were just completely amazing! It made a person realize just how small we are and how much more is out there to explore.

at 13:20:06 on 12/23/2013 UTC

Mary Ellen Keefe McGee Camping at the walk in sites at Huntington Beach SP. in winter. We were the only tents out there. When we made our fire it was dark. We looked up and surrounded by a ring of yellow lights, the eyes of deer all around us. A late night walk to the beach and seeing deer standing outside campers so still we thought they were statues. Walking the beach in the moonlight. Kayaking nearby. Second favorite Sp would be Lake Jocassee's paddle in sites.

at 13:20:59 on 12/23/2013 UTC

Karen Madison Have so many of them.....Pulling into campground A at Dreher Island State Park and having our camp neighbor help us set up things and then the other had fried up enough fish for campground A. The beauty and restfulness is just wonderful and everyone there are super nice.

at 13:22:17 on 12/23/2013 UTC

Carol Smith This past summer I took my then 4 year old son to Edisto State Park to see the beach for the first time. As we made our way to the beach, I told him to close his eyes. When we got to the beach, I told him to open his eyes -- they got really big as he was taking in the ocean and the beach and all he could say was "Wow! Wow!" in the most amazed tone of voice. We had an awesome day playing in the sand and water and will never forget it.

at 13:25:57 on 12/23/2013 UTC

Misty Gray Munson We have so many, but one of our favorites to talk about is when we camped at Kings Mountain State park in our tent. At night it was around 18 degrees, and we set a 2 liter out on the table for dinner and it froze solid in no time. Dinner was cooked in the Dutch oven on the fire, and was frozen, stuck to the pot in the morning! Our daughter was 8 at the time and earned her Jr park ranger award, with us walking the trail all the way to the top of the Mountain, but it was so cold and windy by the time we got to the top, we were running! We still laugh about how cold it was that trip! Would do it all again in a heartbeat. There is no better family time like camping.

at 13:26:50 on 12/23/2013 UTC

Kathy Schoenberger Malpass We were riding bicycles at Huntington Beach state Park and my teenage daughter went on ahead on the trail while we looked at the wildlife. She came back in a flash all out of breath to let us know there was an alligator right next to the path and without knowing it she rode closer than comfortable by the alligator. I would have loved to see her face as she rode by and realized she just past an alligator. So we watched and warned others for several minutes until he crossed the path.

at 13:28:13 on 12/23/2013 UTC

April Powlas My parents struggled financially to raise 5 children on one income. SC State Parks made it possible for us to take vacations every year. Almost all of my childhood vacation memories are not of elaborate vacations but of camping And spending time together roasting marshmallows, taking moonlit walks, and thinking we were "cool" bc my parents would let us walk around by ourselves ;). Funny moments are my dad almost walking into a huge buck at Hunting Island during a midnight bathroom run. Camping at Poinsettia where it stormed the while time! I have many many more, but I know I would not have had the vacations we had, had it not been for the SC State Parks

at 13:30:21 on 12/23/2013 UTC

Kelly N Steve Lee Camping at Hunting Island State Park for Thanksgiving. We cook our turkey and potatoes over the open campfire and after we eat you can walk the beach. It's a great time to reflect on everything we have to be thankful for.

at 13:31:10 on 12/23/2013 UTC

T Belk Ingram Being taught to swim by my Aunt Sybil who was the Waterfront Director at Cheraw State Park. I later became a Lifeguard and Waterfront Director. Mt uncle Joe ran the canteen, he made the best snow cones.

at 13:34:47 on 12/23/2013 UTC

Jonnie Britton My favorite memory always goes back to Aiken State Park. Growing up I spent summers with my grandparents. Every day we went to "the park" and spent almost the whole day. I swam and played with all the kids there, ate snacks from the canteen and listened to music on the juke box at the bathhouse. Those were the best summers!!!!

at 13:46:21 on 12/23/2013 UTC

Jerry Kerschner My worst memory: Stopping on the Huntington Beach State Park causeway to take a photo of the Roseate Spoonbills. It was 7 a.m., no one around. And along comes a park ranger in his gas guzzling, 130 db, 4-wheeler telling me to get off the causeway because I was blocking the traffic. OK, me bad....

at 13:47:09 on 12/23/2013 UTC

Diane Jackson Love reading everyone's stories! I have lotsa great memories involving SC State Parks but my favorite of all is a beautiful fall day in 1997 when my now-husband proposed to me at the top of Table Rock <3

at 13:49:28 on 12/23/2013 UTC

Michele VanPatten Each fall I head to Hickory Knob State Park for the SCWF Outdoor Women's Retreat. I have met many new people and made so many memories, my favorite was the first time I ever went sailing!

at 13:57:39 on 12/23/2013 UTC

Lydia Tinsley Trotter We stay at Hunting Island State Park multiple times every summer. It is my favorite place on earth!!!! We take our fishing boat and put it in near Fripp bridge and dolphins are everywhere while we're fishing! It is the most beautiful sight I've ever seen! One year we were fishing off the pier and a lady dropped her purse off the pier while she was fishing. It had her cell phone, wallet, and car keys in it! I felt so bad of her! I'll never forget that!

at 13:58:47 on 12/23/2013 UTC

Kathy McCoy I wanted to spend my birthday which is in July at the Edisto Beach Campground. We were lucky enough to get a site on the beachfront. We saw some activity on the beach that night and went to see what it was. The park ranger was there and we were able to witness the baby turtles making their way to the beach. It was incredible and made that one of my best experiences ever!

at 13:59:24 on 12/23/2013 UTC

Margaret Brown My family has always been campers. We spend any free weekend camping at a South Carolina State Park, kayaking, fishing, relaxing, etc... Two and a half years ago my vision was deteriorating from an eye disease. I had to have cornea transplants in both eyes to regain my sight. After the surgery I was not able to go into bright sunlight until my transplants adjusted to my eyes. My BEST memory was the first time I was able to go camping after the surgery. We camped at my favorite park, Barnwell State Park. I 'saw' the color of trees for the first time in my life (didn't see true colors before) and enjoyed the outside more on that trip than I was ever able to do in the past. We went fishing, kayaking, walked the trails, sat outside the camper and I was able to 'see' it all with new sight!!! Barnwell State Park became my favorite park that trip because it was where I truly saw so much of the outside for the first time.

at 14:00:30 on 12/23/2013 UTC

Vivian Campbell Hynes We love camping at the State Parks. Our goal is to eventually camp at them all. We have visited a few in the few years we have been camping "seriously". We really enjoy the peacefulness of Lee State Park. We live about 45 minutes from there so it is a great spur-of-the-moment trip. The park rangers are always friendly and willing to make our stay comfortable. Looking forward to our next trip SOON!!

at 14:04:56 on 12/23/2013 UTC

Heather Vincelette I'm a single mom, and every year my daughter and I spend the 4th of July camping at Dreher Island State Park. It's "Sweet T and Momma V's Camping Extravaganza!". We girls can do it alone. But 2 years ago everything seemed to go wrong. I forgot our cooking equipment, my attempt at "burgers over the fire" ended with everything falling INTO the fire...we were starving and it just wasn't getting any easier. As I was grabbing the car keys to head into town for an "I give up-pizza", our tent-site neighbors invited us over to share THEIR dinner. Not only did they have their whole family there, but they were celebrating their oldest sons Birthday AND going away party bc he was leaving for boot-camp in a week. Let me tell you, they treated us as though we were a member of their family, and I was so thankful! We shared the most delicious meal and even joined in to sing "Happy Birthday".

Through our "mommy/daughter" camping weekends, I have tried to show my daughter how to be self-reliant and enjoy nature. And though it usually turns out well, I know that when we head to Dreher Island, there will also always be a friendly neighbor, a smiling face and a helping hand, if needed.

That is my good memory. :)

at 14:15:36 on 12/23/2013 UTC

Melissa Bragg Sack We just visited Hunting Island State Park and Edisto Beach state park to celebrate our 19th wedding anniversary. December is ususally cold no matter where we go. The weekend we picked the weather was PERFECT! Lots of memories were made and we found lots of geocaches! We just bought a park pass for a family christmas gift and can't wait to take our family to visit all the parks!

at 14:19:26 on 12/23/2013 UTC

David Cunningham My favorite memory is my dad taking me camping at oconee state park for square dancing and trout fishing when I was younger. Now that I'm older I'm making memory's with my two boys at oconee state park. Taking them square dancing and going trout fishing.

at 14:24:39 on 12/23/2013 UTC

Ken Kirkley Spending some warm February days at Croft State Park with our family that was visiting from another country. Watching our young grandson play in the dirt. ☺

at 14:25:13 on 12/23/2013 UTC

Josh Simons My favorite memory is my first trip to Rainbow Falls. A friend of mine who wasn't confident he could make the hike came with me, and we came in from Jones Gap. He was tired and sweaty when we got there, but the look on his face and how he expressed "I did it!" as he stared up at Rainbow Falls (we were also the first ones there, so zero crowd) was such a great time.

at 14:38:27 on 12/23/2013 UTC

Michelle Rapp My favorite memories are taking my two children to Charles Town Landing in Charleston. We have such wonderful adventures on the trails, the boat, and animal park located there. We are there almost every weekend finding new places to explore. We just love it. I can see my daughter getting married there. :)

at 14:58:03 on 12/23/2013 UTC

Kathie Slayman Scheffing As a child, my mom took us to Sesquicentennial State Park a lot. I think it helped her keep sane while raising three kids with a husband in the Army. Later, she went there on many camping trips with our Luther League group from Gethsemane Lutheran Church. As a young woman, I camped with my friends, at Myrtle Beach, Huntington Beach, Table Rock and other parks. As a married woman with a family, we have stayed in cabins at Edisto, Givhans Ferry, Myrtle Beach and Poinsett. SC State Parks are a big part of my life and memories.

at 15:13:33 on 12/23/2013 UTC

Debbie Allen We love camping t the cheraw state park , it is o quite and relaxing

at 15:19:59 on 12/23/2013 UTC

Maria Murphree Senn My favorite memory is camping at Hunting Island State Park during Labor Day. I had been on bed rest for four months while pregnant with our baby girl. This was our first trip after having been through that ordeal. My favorite picture is of me and my husband looking for sharks teeth on the beach!

at 15:53:05 on 12/23/2013 UTC

Susan Smith We took some friends camping at edisto for their first time. Stayed in the live oak campground. Walked to the beach from campground. They were upset n chased us with a stick for the long walk. Then we get to the beach n they got to see all the awesome shells n were happy again. They enjoyed the weekend so much and love going back with us now.

at 16:03:21 on 12/23/2013 UTC

Deidre Culbreth Pukl My favorite memory was when my husband and I got married at Lake Greenwood State Park and then visited Charles Towne Landing and Hampton Plantation on our honeymoon

at 16:42:19 on 12/23/2013 UTC

Nancy Kornegay Peterson Seeing the looks on my grand daughters faces the first time they ever saw the ocean. They live in IL and came camping with us at Myrtle Beach State Park. They were in awe!

at 16:43:02 on 12/23/2013 UTC

Donna Backwinkel My husband and I camp every winter at Hunting Island. We compete against each other in a shell-finding competition! I always win!!

at 17:10:03 on 12/23/2013 UTC

Crystal Huggins Mangum My favorite memory is enjoying the sunsets over the lake at Cheraw State Park. My family just loves to go there to relax and enjoy the peace and quiet.

at 17:13:46 on 12/23/2013 UTC

Heather C Bishop On October 19, 2013 my daughter and I slept on the Myrtle Beach State Park Pier along with 25 others. It was one of the best homeschool/family trips ever. Even though it was cold and rainy by the AM hours it was still awesome.

at 17:19:44 on 12/23/2013 UTC

Colleen Carey Davis As a graduate student and the social chair for our graduate student organization (at Medical College of Georgia/Georgia Regents U in Augusta) I wanted to really immerse some of the international students to what "camping" was. We have started a trend, organizing camping events at Hamilton Branch State park utilizing the primitive/pioneer site. This experience has been so rewarding in the fun that everyone has. In addition to these outings Hamilton Branch is our home away from home on the Holiday weekends throughout out the summer and we have made a number of new friends while camping. The park staff is AMAZING and you couldn't ask for a better way to spend a weekend day relaxing!

at 17:37:50 on 12/23/2013 UTC

Spring Slagle Lee State Park has so many memories for us! Ranger Laura's Discover Carolina program on pond ecology was such a favorite that the children asked for a microscope for Christmas. We loved visiting with Rick in the visitor center! We have cooked out in the CCC shelters, splashed and played in the artesian wells and sought out inconspicuous geocaches. The heart of Lee State Park is so full of love. We have explored the boardwalk and the reserve ponds. We discovered mosquito fish and freshwater shrimp. In the midst of all of this, we grew together as a family, we learned more about who our children are and the kids learned that they could have fun adventures outside of the world of ipods and screens. Thanks and love to all who make South Carolina State Park adventures possible and special thanks and love to our Lee State Park Friends!

at 18:23:10 on 12/23/2013 UTC

Kim Pugh Cannan March 1993 my fiancé and i decided to make an impromptu tent camping trip to Table Rock State Park because of a snow storm coming in. Long story short it turned into a tree falling car trapped holed up in a bathhouse Saturday til a Ranger came to check on us and we were able to hike across to an unused cabin without power but much better than a bathhouse floor ( which had a tree thru the men's roof side by the way). The next day we hiked 3 miles out to the main road where my parents drove up from Lexington to pick us up. We had to go back once trees were cleared to get our car.

at 18:58:13 on 12/23/2013 UTC

Joy Epps Childs My family has always went camping even before I was born..When I was born my parents made it a tradition to go camping at Oconee state park every year..When I was 8 years old my daddy was tragically killed but my mom still continued to take my brother and me camping..I told my mom when I grew up and had kids of my own that I was going to carry on the same tradition with my kids that her and my dad had shared with us...So every year my husband and me and our two kids go camping every year July the 4th week and 3 to 4 more times through out the year....I think camping is the best place to make memories with my family....Thank you South Carolina state parks for helping make the best family memories....

at 20:28:48 on 12/23/2013 UTC

Andy Langston My best State Park memories are of going with friends who aren't familiar with the parks in SC. The wonder is fun to watch.

at 20:42:59 on 12/23/2013 UTC

E Ashley Howell My family started the tradition several years ago of having Thanksgiving dinner at Barnwell State Park! We love it!

at 21:27:32 on 12/23/2013 UTC

Mary Brooks When I was a child my family went camping at Sand Dollar St Park. I remember it was gorgeous & packed with palm trees. It was my first visit to the ocean. Sadly, Isle of Palms is now developed. Great memories!! Love SC parks!

at 21:29:29 on 12/23/2013 UTC

Katie Jacks My husband and I are newly married. Last year we made it a tradition to spend Thanksgiving with our friends--at a State Park. Last year was our first Thanksgiving together, and we spent it at Drear Island fishing, laughing, and fellowshiping together by the campfire. What a great place to be thankful.

at 21:44:52 on 12/23/2013 UTC

Lisa Fulmer Our family loves tent camping at Table Rock. Two years ago I finally hiked to the top of Table Rock with my husband and son. I was very proud that I made it. For the next week I couldn't sit or stand without muscles in my legs reminding me of my adventure.

at 21:51:19 on 12/23/2013 UTC

Debbie Bowers Johns We have so many memories of our camping trips. We camped thru so many wind storms, freezing weather, and even the winds off a hurricane. Bad weather does not stop us from having a great time. My favorite trip though is 2 yrs ago when we went to Table Rock. It was also the most painful. My husband and I decided that we was going to climb to the top of Table Rock. We got our supplies ready and started off. Just imagine 2 over-weight old people climbing a mountain with one pink backpack. I got about 1/4 mile up the mountain when I got sick. I couldn't go no further , I had to stop. I told him to go on. He had been told he would never make it to the top from someone at church so he really did not want to stop. I gave him the backpack and sent him on. I continued on at my slow pace. Everyone that passed me , I would tell them to look for the pink backpack. I tell them to let my husband know that I was on the way. The hikers that was coming back down would stop and tell me where my husband had gotten as they were looking for the lady with the pink shirt. My husband made it to the top and I made it about 3/4 mile to the top. Not bad for 2 overweight old folks with a pink backpack. Best hike yet! Always have loads of fun!!

at 21:52:48 on 12/23/2013 UTC

Michael Mangum My family loves to visit state parks. My favorite memory is canoeing at Cheraw State Park with my boys. We ended up in the lake when my youngest moved suddenly! My wife stood laughing on the bank. Thankfully the water was very shallow! My boys still bring up that trip years later!

at 22:37:19 on 12/23/2013 UTC

Kevin Rodriguez We,ve made Hunting Island a regular trip almost every year now. It was hard to explain to my family that the term beach was reserved for oceans and not lakes in the Midwest. After going to Hunting Island it's impossible to want to go anywhere else.

at 22:42:02 on 12/23/2013 UTC

Lana Painter Gardner Table Rock State Park has been a family favorite. Cabin 15 has lots of room for our family, and our kids and grandkids have had so much fun there. Husband and I have tried to visit all the parks, and only have a few left that we haven't been to.

at 22:45:20 on 12/23/2013 UTC

Carla Smith My favorite state park memory was on 09-19-09 when I married my best friend at Table Rock State Park. It has been a rough 4 years but whenever we have a free weekend we are always heading to a South Carolina State Park for a hike.

at 23:57:29 on 12/23/2013 UTC

Mike Hanson https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=z41CXWoRj\_E

at 0:39:05 on 12/24/2013 UTC

Mike Hanson We spent a week at Edisto beach state park last summer. I'm 48 and I've never experienced such an enchanting vacation. Looking forward to summer. Check out our youtube video of EB and the surrounding area.

at 0:40:32 on 12/24/2013 UTC

South Carolina State Parks Nancy Kornegay Peterson, Tammy Nevills, Gail Hicks, Lisa Fulmer and Michael Mangum.....all of you have been selected as our winners! Please private message me with your address here on our facebook page. Thanks! And thanks to all of you who shared your precious memories!

at 1:11:11 on 12/24/2013 UTC

Spring Slagle Thanks for letting us all share such wonderful SC State Park memories! What a wonderful Christmas treat!

at 1:34:20 on 12/24/2013 UTC