South Carolina State Parks

at 14:48:13 on 8/19/2010 UTC

There are many hidden treasures throughout SC's State Parks. One is the Isaac Hayne Burial Site. The site interprets the story of Isaac Hayne, who was executed by the British during the Revolutionary War, and preserves his grave and that of some of his family members. It is located just off HWY 64 on your way to Edisto Beach. Stop by for a little history next time you're in the area!
