Dear Governor Haley, Thank you for sending sending us the video about India. I learned a lot about India.
India is a special country. Thank you!
Sincerely,
Davidson

Dear Governor Haley,

Thank you for the video, we all loved it! I didn't know you are an Indian American. Your video taught me so much about India. I thought there was a middle class, but with your help, I learned that there is an elite class and lower class. At first I thought in India they eat cow. I was wrong. In India the cow is the holy animal. I think at the country of study at school we had chicken vindaloo. It was really yummy. We get to make a Diwali candle. I hope one day I can be just like you. You're pretty, smart, and a governor. Who wouldn't want to be you? I really want to meet you. Enjoy!

Sincerely,
Nacy
Hraemer

Dear Governor Haley,

Thank you for teaching us about India. I loved the video. Thank you for all you do for the state. What I learned about India is all about the different foods that they have in India. At country of study day we made the rugs. I liked making the rugs. I hope to meet you someday.

Dear Governor Haley,
Thank you for sharing that video with us. My parents were also born in India. So each year we visit our family there. We also eat Indian food every night at home. In school we are learning about India. We have been doing many activities with India. For example, at Fun Day we did a relay race in which we had to choose a person and dress ~~them~~ he or she up in Indian clothes. When we watched your video, it reminded me so much about India I cried a little bit. I remembered the cows crossing the streets and visiting so many incredible places their like the Taj Mahal.

Sincerely,

Dear Governor Haley,

Thankyou for answering the questions about India and teaching us many things we didn't know about India. I had no idea that it was either you were really rich or really poor and there was nothing in the middle. I also didn't know that there were arranged marriages and that Indian food was so spicy! At Hammond, our Country Day of Study was India. We mined for diamonds, but I lost mine. We also made peacocks out of construction paper and made swords for a sword dance. We also decorated carpets and candles! I really liked making the prayer flags! My favorite part was lunch! The samosas were really spicy, but I kept eating them anyway I loved the orange stuff! I only got a few bites cause my friend ate the rest without me knowing. My most favorite part of the day was when we did a giant performance of the Junglebook! I was a monkey! Thank you for teaching us so many cool things about India! I hope to meet you soon! Have a nice day!

Sincerely,
Hannah

Dear Governor Haley,

Thank you for all you do for the state of South Carolina and for telling Hammond so many interesting things about India. I thought that it was interesting (but also kind of sad) that India used to have arranged marriages.

As Americans, we never think about that because we have the freedom to marry who ever we choose. So, just thinking about if that happened in the U.S. was strange.

During Country of Study Day at Hammond, we tried different kinds of Indian food. There was a lot of flavor in most of the foods that we had.

I tried the Chicken Vindaloo. It was very flavorful and was also kind of spicy.

My personal favorite was the Indian rice. It was magnificently delicious! Well, thank you so so much for telling us about India. I would love to meet you someday. It would be an enormous honor!

Sincerely,
Julia-Claire

Dear Governor Haley,

Thank you so much for telling Hammond some facts about India. I remember one thing you said was that there is only a very rich side and a very poor side. There is nothing in between that. That felt not fair to me, but I am so glad that I live in Columbia with a great governor. Another thing I learned was that there were arranged marriages. I would hate for my parents to pick my husband. The bad thing is what if I got a boring and not funny guy. What would I do with him? I'm so glad they don't do that in America. At Hammond we learn some facts too. We have a Country of Study day each year where we spend the whole day learning about the country. This year it was India. We tried some delicious foods at lunch. I remember we tried this spiced chicken that I really liked. Also there was a crunchy thing that was filled with spicy chicken. When we went to the science room we searched for "diamonds." We learned there are lots of diamond industries in India. I hope I see you sometime soon to talk about India

Sincerely,

Anna

Dear Governor Haley,

Thank you for all you do for our State and for the Video of you answering our questions about India. I learned from the Video that there is no traffic control on the roads. At our school we had a country day of study. One of the activities were trying India foods. We also learned that India has tons of diamonds. Another fact I learned is that India is the world's largest democracy. I hope I can meet you in person one day!

Sincerely,
Tanner

Dear Governor Haley,

We all learned so much from the amazing video that you sent Hammond School. Thank you for sending the video to us, and answering all of our questions. One thing I learned from your video was that in India you are either rich or poor. That is interesting because here in America you can be in the middle of rich and poor. Another thing is here at Hammond we have Country of Study Day. Some of the foods that you mentioned are foods that I tried. They were all so good, but my favorite was probably the chips. One day I hope to meet you because of all the things you do for South Carolina.

Sincerely,
Maddox

Dear Governor Haley,

Thank you for answering our questions about India.

We also learn a lot about it in Country Day of Study.

But not nearly as much that you taught us. My favorite fact is that their parents used to arrange their marriages.

I am a Type One Diabetic so it is an honor that I get to meet you once a year on National Diabetes Day.

Sincerely,
Sam

Dear Governor Haley,

Thank you for spending your time making the video you made for Hammond. It was cool on what you talked about India. I did not know that the people have arranged marriages. We have learned a lot from your video. I hope we could meet some day. I was really happy we could see your video. Thank you for all you do, I really appreciate it!

Love, Annabelle

Dear Governor Hall,

Thank you - or all you do for our state.
Thank you for taking the time to meet with us. I am glad that there is not any more confusion about the Admission of students to the state. I hope to meet you some day.

Sincerely,

Andrew Lansche

Dear Governor Haley,

We enjoyed watching the video about India, and thank you for sending it to us. I loved watching you talk about the Holi festival. We just had Fun Day at our school and one of the games was an India game. You had to dress your partner in Indian clothing. I really enjoyed it. Hammond has also had a Country of Study Day. We got to make Indian artwork, try some Indian food, and play some Indian games. One day I would love to meet you and know more about India. I think it's cool you know so much about India. I have a girl in my class named Sachi. Her family is from India too. It is really cool to have someone from a different country in your class. Thank you for the video, again and I can't wait to meet you one day.

Sincerely,
Lily Meetze

Dear Governor Haley,

Thank you for the video that you sent to us. One thing I learned from the video was that they just let cows walk around the rails. For country of study we studied India. At lunch we had Indian food and we also learned a dance. We had Fun Day on Friday and in one of the activities we had to dress as team mate in Indian clothes. I hope I get to meet you one day.

Sincerely,
Simone

Dear Governor Haley,

Thank you. I learned so much from your video. I think that having cows in the road would be fun. I think the food sounds delicious. Every year, we have a Country Day of Study and we learn about it all year. Last year was France, this year was India, and next year is New Zealand. This year, on Country Day of Study, we learned a dance, we tried new foods from India, and we learned about the culture. I learned a lot about India this year and I even learned more in your video. Hope to see you soon and Happy late Mother's Day. Thank you!

Sincerely,
May Malanuk

Dear Governor Haley,

I Loved your video, India is such a neat place. I never knew that India had no street rules. We tried all different kinds of foods from India. My favorite was the rice chip. We also dug for diamonds in Laramie like in India, except our "Laramie rocks" were brown playdoh with a plastic jewel inside. I hope to meet you in person sometime.

Sincerely,
Hillis Kopceky.

Dear Governor Haley,

Thank you for sending us that video all about India. It was really cool learning about the people of India and their beliefs. On Country day of Study at Hammond we got to try Indian foods and learn Indian dances. I hope to meet you before your term ends to learn more about India.

Sincerely,
Hampton Redd

Dear Governor Haley,

Thank you so much for sending us that amazing video about India. It is amazing to have someone so important (you) teach us about a foreign country. From what you said, I think India is an interesting economy. I thought it was pretty cool that you see cows in the road and how they are sacred animals to India. I hope to meet you some day.

Sincerely,
Aiden McKeenan

Dear Governor Haley,

Thank you so much for sending us your video about India. I loved learning about all the cows that are always on the road! At Hammond, we have Country Day of Study. Each year, we pick a country. A couple of the teachers then take a trip to the country that was chosen. The teachers try and learn as much as they can about the country on their trip. Finally, we do a bunch of activities related to the country. This year, our country was India. I loved learning about India. I hope I get to meet you some day.

Sincerely,
Reece Bluestein

Dear Governor Haley,

That was so nice
of you to send Hammond a video about India. It helped us prepare for Country day of study.
I sort of liked some of the food. But not the samosas. They were so spicy, I had to get 2 cups of water to cool my tongue off!

Sincerely,
Caroline Rich

Dear Governor Haley,

I would like to thank you for sending us a video about India. I learned so much about this different country and what people do, culture. One thing I learned was the fact though India is a huge country, the world they have many similarities with America. I love trying the food and the people. India is a Country Day of Study. As a student I love learning these very things and similar things about countries every year. India has such a unique and enchanting tradition and culture. I Love India.

Sincerely,
Preston Swarat

Dear Gov Haley,
