

Account: South Carolina State Parks

Content type: Facebook Page - Timeline posts

Record ID: 20120129South-Carolina-State-ParksTimeline-posts52748_10150566365318166

South Carolina State Parks

at 23:12:58 on 1/29/2012 UTC · 🌐

DYK? Andrew Jackson State Park is a presidential homeplace of the 7th President of the United States, Andrew Jackson. Visit the museum and view the Boy of the Waxhaws statue. For more info: <http://www.southcarolinaparks.com/andrewjackson/introduction.aspx>

Dot Greene see u soon

at 23:19:48 on 1/29/2012 UTC

David Donar He was the only one born on a boat (from Ireland) outside the US.

at 23:31:10 on 1/29/2012 UTC

Crystal Norris-Jennings Is this the same statue as the one on the Columbia College campus?

at 23:34:42 on 1/29/2012 UTC

Rich Fought Nice park and nice facilities. Bring a bike to get around, ride the trails, etc. Go see some history if you can.

at 0:13:49 on 1/30/2012 UTC

Suzanne Gall Butler Just visited this park today for a hike and visited the museum. What an interesting life story this president had.

at 1:11:27 on 1/30/2012 UTC

Nelle Tyler All the state parks of SC are great and some are full of so much history!

at 1:42:41 on 1/30/2012 UTC

Katrina Martin Moncrief We've camped here twice. Really a nice little park.

at 2:48:13 on 1/30/2012 UTC

Mike Davidson small correction: this is not the home place of Jackson; the Park commemorates his life and his presidency; he lived in the area, but the exact site is unknown.

at 18:59:21 on 1/30/2012 UTC