

---

From: GOVERNING: This Week in Politics <newsletters@governing.com>
Sent: Friday, July 29, 2016 8:29 AM
To: Haley, Nikki
Subject: Governors' Campaign Finance Problems, Oldest Legislator Ousted and More

View Newsletter in Browser

Subscribe to Governing Magazine & Newsletters
Follow us on Facebook / Twitter / LinkedIn

---

THIS WEEK IN POLITICS

Governors' Campaign Finance Problems, Oldest Legislator Ousted and More

BY ALAN GREENBLATT

Four years ago, Kansas GOP Gov. Sam Brownback and other conservatives managed to unseat eight moderate Republicans in the state Senate who had blocked parts of his agenda. This year, the moderate wing is hoping to exact its revenge.

Backed by an unusual bipartisan coalition of former governors unhappy with the direction in which Brownback has taken the state, dozens of moderates are challenging conservative incumbents in next Tuesday's House and Senate primaries. And they have a good chance of winning many of the races. A number of the challengers have outtraised their incumbent opponents, and a May poll showed Brownback had the lowest approval rating of any U.S. governor, at 26 percent. KEEP READING >>

ADVERTISEMENT ... Content continues below

---

MORE POLITICS NEWS & COMMENTARY

Florida Governor to Lead Pro-Trump Super PAC

Gov. Rick Scott, a multi-millionaire, stopped just short of endorsing Trump before his Florida primary win.

Some Officials Are Getting Schooled in Running Elections

At a time when the job of elections administration is becoming more complex and more scrutinized, a major university has started formal training.

Do Governors Make Better Vice Presidents?

Governors are rarely VP picks, yet Hillary Clinton and Donald Trump both selected one for the increasingly powerful office.

Tim Kaine: The 3 Lessons I Learned From Local Government

Hillary Clinton's running mate is one of the few people in American history to serve as a mayor, governor and U.S. senator. (Oh yeah, he was also a city council member.)

Va. Governor Promises to Circumvent Court on Voting Rights

The state's Supreme Court struck down his executive orders restoring voting rights to more than 200,000 felons.

Gov2Gov: The Lobbying That Falls Under the Radar

Cities, counties and states put a lot of effort -- and money -- into lobbying other levels of government.

Campaign Signs Ruling Pits Kansas Versus Its Cities

In 2014, the U.S. Supreme Court ruled that city sign ordinances have to be "content neutral."

Pro-Pot Group Makes 2 Endorsements for N.H. Governor

One is a Democrat, and the other is a Republican.

2016 Governors Races Ratings & News

A go-to guide for keeping up with the gubernatorial elections in every state.

---

ENJOY THIS NEWSLETTER?

Governing* has 10 others delivering news and commentary on a wide range of topics straight to your inbox.

SUBSCRIBE FOR FREE TODAY

---

This email was sent to nikkihaley@gov.sc.gov.

Unsubscribe | Opt out of all e.Republic email | Privacy Statement

© 2015 e.Republic. All rights reserved. 100 Blue Ravine Road, Folsom, CA 95630. Phone: 916-932-1300

