The Son of Man: Cosby accusers are "liars"

New Nation of Islam leader, the Son of Man, branded as "liars" the more than 40 women that have accused Dr. Bill Cosby of sexual assault.

During his nearly six hour broadcast on Friday, September 11th, the Son of Man addressed his previous call to the NAACP to get involved in what he called the media lynching of Bill Cosby. The Son of Man asked audience members to call in and tell the reception that they got when they called the NAACP to request that they speak up in defense of Cosby. Several callers phoned in and said that the person that answered the phone at the NAACP headquarters was rude to them. The Son of Man encouraged the audience to be persistent and to call the local NAACP chapters in their respective cities to request that the NAACP support Cosby.

Presenting what he referred to as "smoking gun" evidence, the Son of Man blasted the LAPD for their investigation of Bill Cosby regarding what he calls the false allegations of Judy Huth, the woman that alleges she was assaulted by Cosby in the Playboy Mansion in 1974.

The Son of Man first showed news reports of sexual assault by police officers that was caught on tape, and he asked why famed attorney Gloria Allred, who represents many of the Cosby accusers, has been silent when it comes to victims of police sexual abuse.

Then he played a news report that showed that the LAPD has over 12,000 rape kits in storage that they haven't even begun to investigate. The Son of Man called out the scandal-plagued Los Angeles police force for their unfair and biased treatment of Dr. Bill Cosby, stating that if the LAPD was truly interested in justice, that their attention would be focused on unsolved rape cases where they actually have DNA evidence with which to catch perpetrators, instead of on ridiculous fabricated stories of alleged incidents that Cosby accusers claim took place decades ago for which they have no proof.

The Son of Man called the LAPD's investigation a farce to "teach that nigger a lesson".
