

making the same mistakes, again, in the future. Let the flag keep flying, to remind us of the truth of our State's and Region 's history so that none may make those same mistakes again.

The battle for State's Rights and against Unfair Taxation continues to this very day, as we watch unelected, black robed tyrants re-decipher our founding documents to substantiate their current views, further destroying our Framers' vision, making our true history all that much more important in the process. As it was against a backdrop of such totalitarianism, that the 11 southern States seceded and Lincoln's 'War Against the States' began. Little known is the fact that the New England States were contemplating secession, before the South seceded, but who's hopes were dashed with the untimely death of their leader, Alexander Hamilton, in his duel with Aaron Burr.

The long running fight against Federal Tyranny must continue, now, more so than ever before, as the Statists push their long held plans towards fruition, striving to create their long sought one world government, aka the 'New World Order', aka an Oligarchy of the world's wealthiest 'Elites', aka Global Fascism.

Keep the Southern Cross flying, our battle with the totalitarian, Federal Leviathan is far from over. It was never about slavery, in the first place. Don't allow it to be made into such.

Sincerely,

Rocky [REDACTED]

You just had to say take the flag down. I knew it would be just the beginning. It will keep on to even owning one will be illegal.

We don't negotiate with terrorists. Giving in to the black groups who promote hate and division is the same thing. Schools should teach the REAL history of the south. Wait, someone will be offended. I am offended every time I go to town. Loud vulgar rap from the car by me. Guess that's okay.

I just heard on the news that the KKK from NC is planning to come to our state. The News said Governor Haley said they are not welcome here. Since we have allowed the NAACP from other states to come here, then how can we refused any other organization from coming. That's discrimination. I do agree that things are going to get out of hand. I don't believe the Confederate Flag needs to come down but I also don't feel like we should allow people demonstrating outside the StateHouse to keep stirring things up. Columbia was burned due to the Civil War, the Civil War was fought by people standing up for what they believed in. It's not hatred, that's only how the NAACP wants people to think of it that way. What was the color of the majority of people fighting that war? Brother against brother. The only war fought in the US! HISTORY!

Please take down that flag from all government grounds and buildings. It is not something to be proud of. It flew when 650000 Americans died because a handful of slave owners went on a rant of treason that brought the rest of the country into four years of hell.

Please for all of us, all Americans, take it down. That would be the right thing to do.

Although I live in the north we, my wife and I, love spending time in the south. It is a beautiful part of our country with some very nice people.

So please take it down.

I learned that you have approved the removal of the confederate flag from government buildings. I wish to share two thoughts with you. firstly, the civil war was fought over 150 years ago and freed mostly black slaves, providing them with all the freedoms other races enjoy (an accomplishment that was long time needed). secondly, years later the African American groups pressure political appointees to remove the freedoms of others and they are succeeding.

How is this improving race relations? it isn't. who will protect my freedoms, regardless of my race? I predict that when the Mexican Americans get upset with USA they will insist on removing the Alamo (not so far fetched don't you think).

You at first seemed so wise and rational to postpone any consideration of the flag monument at the capitol until after the funerals for the nine following the murder at the Church. Wisdom gave way as you switched positions calling for the immediate removal while emotions were high and rationality was nowhere to be found. One very vocal advocate of removing what she described as a "hate symbol" couldn't describe it or state its color. It should be remembered that we are a country wherein our government governs at the consent of the people. Process is important.

As a resident of the great state of South Carolina and a christian, conservative, African american . My personal view regarding removal of the confederate flag is to leave it in tact. But with regard to decision process of whether it stays or goes, should be put before the people of this great state whom all the elected officials represent. No matter the issue, political correctness should never be the driving force behind it. The position I bring may not be the consensus view, but as an individual that is proud to be a conservative christian, proud to be an american and a South Carolinian, I know this country has many scars and that no decision will be totally popular. But if more emphasis is placed on the great strides that have been made and the obstacles that have been overcome together, future obstacles will become fewer and overcoming them will become easier. Thank you for taking the time to read this.

God bless

Please do not allow history to be erased just to simply give into today's hot topic politically. Our flag is our heritage and those who do not understand are not familer with history. You will cause the domino affect that has already began in other states where history is already on the chopping block to the extent of exhuming soldiers. Enough is enough. Our state has and will always be the destination for tourists and business because of the same people whose history is being persecuted. Thank you for your time

I agree with your decision to remove the Confederate flag from the State House grounds and move it to a museum. However, I do not agree with people trying to erase our history. Statues, monuments, and historical landmarks are a part of our history. Fort Sumter and Fort Moultrie should never have removed the flags. I am appalled that The National Cathedral is going to remove stained glass windows from the wing that The United Daughters of the Confederacy worked so hard to build that honors Confederate soldiers. I am proud to be from SC and honor my heritage. But, please stop people from trying to erase our wonderful history. Removing all these things will not change history. It is just that "history". I am proud of my ancestors and want to continue to see them honored. Please do something to stop all this madness.

Nikki,

Just before you go out and make your decision on bringing down our states proud history for no reason I wanted to send you some history books. I have most of the information highlighted to make things easier for you. I do understand how some people weren't good at things and maybe history was not yours. Hey it happens. On the other hand coming up with racism or hate is ridiculous. what about the racism white people are getting from you? I guess that's not your concern. you team up with the king of hate and extortion Al Sharpton with no problem. You of all have no right to make this decision, it has nothing to do with you. Do you know that as soon as you drop that flag that all these people that have been kiss your butt will be gone, off to the next thing they can take from us. You wont be able to get a place leading a book club. The only time your name will be brought up will be by the people who actually know history will and your name will leave a bad taste in there mouth. You'll go down as the woman Governor who ruined our history of not backing down to a tyrant. Why??? What has the Southern white people done to you to deserve this? That stupid kid had a flag in a picture!!! He also had flowers and a bowl cut. Why are you not banning those? I guess a black man can grow a bowl cut and have flowers I guess. Just remember this the day will come to were someone will take something you cherish and when they do you just remember people like you made that happen!!!

Governor Haley,

I just want to remind you that I hope that you fully understand what you have CAUSED WITH YOUR ATTACK OUR SOUTHERN HERITAGE AND HISTORY??? You have pushed "race relations to a boiling point in our state" and created a problem that did not have to be addressed because the "LAWMAKERS OF THIS GREAT STATE, BOTH BLACK AND WHITE HAD ALREADY DECIDED THIS ISSUE MANY YEARS AGO"! You will now not be remembered for being a "Great Governor and a gracious lady, but one who stuck her nose into something that should have been left alone"!!! You had my vote and I bragged on you everyday until you went down this dangerous path. I can only pray to JESUS CHRIST that you will change your mind before our state explodes with anger and resentment. Please re-think this terrible thing that you have started and created and also think about what you have done across the Southern Part of our great Nation now??? You might as well take down everything Confederate across the state because there is no satisfying the liberal left crowd that you are now catering too, the same crowd that did not vote for you and will never vote for you in anything as long as you belong to the Republican Party.

You have broken the hearts of the many people who stood by you and voted for you. We still vote and I think that your political career is done in South Carolina.

Thank you,
Stanford [REDACTED]

Governor Haley,

I simply wanted to thank you for your leadership and courage during the past few week. I am a proud South Carolinian, a native of Denmark, SC and a USC grad. I have lived in Virginia for 35 years but I still call South Carolina home. I visit often to see my parents and family. I had the pleasure of serving Virginia as a member of Governor Kaine's cabinet. I know what it is like to deal with difficult situations. Although I am a Democrat you made me so very proud. Your recent decision on the flag required courage and I thank you for your reasoned approach. As an African American I have strong feelings about the flag. You have my trust, support and prayers as you move South Carolina forward. I am looking forward to moving back to South Carolina one day. I hope to meet you on one my visits.

God Bless,

David

<SUBJECT>Our South Carolina Heritage</SUBJECT>
<MSG>

Strange it is that all these outsiders want o destroy the heritage that is ours in South Carolina. Even stranger that our representatives in our great state, will listen to the voices of the outsiders before they will listen to ours. More battles and skirmishes in the Revolutionary War were fought in South Carolina than any other state yet little emphasis or recognition is given to our beloved state for the stand we took against the Brits. Very little is taught of South Carolina history anymore. Such as in our rich culture the majority of our legislature was once more black than white and we elected the first black Senator since reconstruction. Few realize that we band together and stand in reverence and solidarity to honor our fallen soldiers. To most South Carolinians, racism was something that happens up north, because we work together side by side for the common good. Together, black and white we have given our all to overcome our differences and set an example that others may follow. Do we make mistakes, certainly we do; but, we move on and try to learn the lessons our history has taught us.. We have made compromises to show understanding one to another, not for the sake of winning an argument, but to try and understand one another's point of view. One such compromise was made in 2000 resulting in the flag that honors 620,000 American lives to be moved to the State House grounds at a memorial honoring the sacrifices, both black and white and north and south whereas a new monument was erected in reverence and recognition of the contribution that African Americans contributed to our heritage. To discount the contributions made to our culture and our heritage by outside factions is irreverent and nullifies our history and our culture. To try and dismiss the Confederacy by removing the flag from our culture would drive a wedge of hatred even deeper into the hearts that are already breaking because someone used a symbol of our solidarity to justify fascist ideals. By allowing the destruction of a symbol that honors the sacrifices of those who gave their lives in defense of their way of life in the South, would surely nullify and taint any other symbol of that bloody conflict. Lincoln's Address at Gettysburg, will certainly lose its place in history. The Emancipation Proclamation will have effectively lost its validity thus becoming just another reminder of a time that should never be forgotten. The KKK does not reflect the values of South Carolinians, neither does the Black Panthers. We as South Carolinians, both black and white, need to stand fast and not allow those factions to destroy our unity and solidarity. We share a common ground sacred to each of us, our State. In the past we have worked together to settle our differences among ourselves and grow better and stronger in spite of the adversities we have faced and we can move forward to our future because we cannot forget the lessons of our darker past. Together we can shape a brighter tomorrow for our posterity. Divided we can forget any progress we have made and allow hatred to consume our homes as it has in so many other places. I have always thought, we, as South Carolinians knew how to come together and work towards a common goal. If we allow outsiders to control our destiny, we will left like Baltimore, Jefferson, Watts, and so many other places that allowed outsiders to incite hate and discord, leaving our Great State in ruins. The problem with that is, they will crawl back into their perspective holes and leave us to clean up a mess that we never should let happen. Yes, we have all been wounded, and we need our time to heal. We do not have to resort to the hatred and back biting that is being sent our way. We are first and foremost South Carolinians, we are neighbors and family. We live and work here and we are proud of our roots and should be willing to help one another and try to understand each other's point of view. We are not heathens, we function best when we work together, being accepting of our differences and understanding of our concerns.

I was so proud of you during the early part of your term as Governor of the great state of South Carolina. No more I tore up your autographed photo and threw it in the trash. Much the way you have done with my heritage. I pray to my Christian God that your political career fails from here on, you did this as a ticket punch on your bid to ride someone's coattails into VP job. You have increased hate in the entire country and other parts of the world. I will do everything in my power to bring opposition to anything you try in the future. You have become quite the embarrassment to this state. Now if a person is white, they will be treated badly just for skin cover. You are a sick rag head in disguise. I pray for the destruction of political career, I now would not trust you in getting my fries to me at McDonalds. You are adding and abetting the destruction of this country, their nothing more than at traitor.

Please explain to me why you would ever consider removing a symbol of Southern history. If anyone were to take the time to learn their history, they would find that the Confederate flag was not about racism, but a flag made for the Confederate South to rebell against the North taxing cotton and other commodities.

Dear Madam, I have a few things that concern me about this great country of ours and and your great state. I cannot believe that the government can be so unconcerned about the history of this country. When one group of people are singled out and abused because of their beliefs then this borders on a country ruled by dictators and even worse. The will of some of the people is being infringed on. My Great Great grandparents lost half of their grandchildren (8) in the War for Southern Independence. And as for Obama wanting to just get rid of Second Amendment well what can I say. I will appreciate your doing your part in dispelling these terrible wrongs.

You may want to better study the causes of the American civil war (clue: slavery was but one item) and the destructive aftermath of the reconstruction before you inadvertently start the next phase of all that. History is not well taught in current times which could lead to reliving the worst of it.

I am glad Republicans are in power in your state and would just as soon they remain in power. The Democrats were the primary cause of the civil war as I see it but the seem to forget it was their arrogance and policies that caused the war.

It is the vicious Reconstruction (a Republican thing) that caused the KKK and all that hatred. Had A Lincoln been allowed to carry out his post war ideas non of these problems would have occurred (read his speeches). Now, on the matter of the Confederate battle flag. It did not promote slaver but states rights. It was misused after the war by evil people who chose to carry it but then they also rallied carrying the Stars and Stripes as well - so would you propose to banish all flags including our National Colors?

If you dishonor the flag of the foe who fought so bravely for their cause you dishonor my great grandfather who fought them and preserved the Union. Please do not dishonor him. Promote the proper study of History and not just perpetuation of popular myth of causes and effects.

Please do that which will "bind up the Nation's wounds" and not widen the chasm that divides.

Thank you.

The decision to wage war on the Confederate Battle Flag was the most denigrating act of political pandering I've seen lately - a complete shock, considering how much I used to respect the Gov. Please learn about the history of the South, the War of Northern Aggression and the outright evil unleashed on S.C. for daring to take a stand against an abusive, coercive, immoral federal government. Read northern newspaper articles making the case for war against the South, read Lincoln's own political speeches, look at undeniable realities such as Gen. Grant's own slave - which he freed only after the 13th Amendment was added to the Constitution. These sources can help you understand why the symbol of our sacrifice is so deeply regarded by real Southerners and why we must have the stomach to stand up again - against the slander, against those who believe the Hollywood/northeastern tale of what happened and why, and against those who would pervert Our flag to use it for hate. May God direct and protect you.

Governor Haley,

Please use your bully pulpit to speak out again, before the readings and voting next week. There are still undecided voters in the House and Senate. This State needs to come together for what is right and ethical. You have a unique opportunity to take a stand against the hate, criminal mistreatment, discrimination, and injustice that is visited upon people of color in South Carolina. You have a unique opportunity to stop the violence in this state. Please take this opportunity, make your stand clear and back it up with protection for people of color and their churches. There should be a zero-tolerance for violence and intimidation and hate crimes and hate speech.

Please Governor Haley, in the name of justice, speak out.

I see the KKK is going to have a "rally", where else but the traitor hate state of south carolina?

Boycott South Carolina. Don't go there (unless it is to bring the racist flag down), don't buy anything from the hate state.

Dear Governor Haley,

I am deeply concerned for our state right now. We have lost 9 tremendous members of our community and family. In the wake of this, we have had 6 churches burned in the south. One of these most recently in Greeleyville.

I support the move to remove the Confederate flag from our Statehouse grounds and further support any and all efforts to move our state forward in terms of our relationships with one another.

I am deeply concerned about the upcoming rally of the Klu Klux Klan at the state house.

I fully support free speech and understand that we all have the right to demonstrate and/ or protest in this country. However, I feel that this group represents hatred and will only bring us down further.

I urge you to find a way to block them from demonstrating in our state. I know this is tricky in terms of laws. I get that.

We are better than this and our citizens deserve better than to have more negative press.

Our brothers and sisters in the African American churches deserve much more and need to be shown that we care.

Please find a way to end this.

Hello,

I just saw an article saying that the KKK is planning on a rally at "my" State House to protest the removal of the Confederate Flag. I do not understand why a hate group is given this opportunity. In today's political climate can they not be classified as a domestic terror group and be banned? As a white American male I am embarrassed that our nation and the world thinks this group is any representation of Southern Americans. We are hard working God fearing people. These people are misguided idiots.

Governor (and staff),

Stand up and represent the majority of people in our state!!!

Just so you don't get the wrong idea I agree with not allowing the KKK to have a soapbox to spew what would more than likely be a hate dialog. Not permitting them to stir up trouble was the right decision but who allowed the Black Panthers a permit for them to spew their hate and call for killing descendents of slave owner and their families. I don't think that anyone black or white should be allowed to stand before a crowd and preach what they did. If the New York transit authority can refuse certain adds along with many other transportation departments in the US then as a citizen of the State of SC I shouldn't be subject to that type of display from anyone. I always though if you threatened someones life that you could and should be arrested. There is nothing wrong with peaceful demonstration but when it turns violent the government needs to go on record that they will shoot to kill. If this was done in Ferguson and Baltimore they wouldn't have had the problems they did. A good dose of common sense goes along way. Ps. I am a 100% Nicki Haley supporter and believe she did the right thing on the flag even though I am also a proud southerner.

Subject: There is a difference between Lies and Truth

Gov. Haley:

I am not sure this is even your new email address but will respond anyway since a letter came from you.

I am not sure how or whether to respond to your email for one and have not been feeling well with today being much like yesterday. The event on June 17, 2015 were horrible and even more personal because I knew one of the victims. The following statements will not be to dishonor the Charleston, SC Killings but bring all of us to a level of consciousness before and past June 17, 2015. It is easy to make a tough decision when the world is watching an act that has brought shame therefore requires us to take the right action which should always be our goal. I have contacted your office for at least three years requesting assistance with employment that was being denied through corrupt activities at SCDEW. I made many calls and sent emails to your office regarding Barred From Applying and even was willing to meet with you at your office but all attempts failed. I made many attempts before June 17, 2015 to have state of South Carolina look at itself and rise to a level of consciousness regarding Barred From Applying but all failed.

I find it very hard to accept this new found love especially knowing that South Carolina State Agencies Employees denied me employment not base on qualifications, presented false statements, presented false documentations, falsely accused of harassment, threats of calling the local law enforcement to filed charges, called me by phone making threats, sending letter to not have any contact with SCDEW, secretly blackball until December 30, 2018, all knew about barred from applying but denied it, through corrupt activities made attempts to declared barred from applying as a system error and treated like a common criminal at a public meeting before June 17, 2015.

We are grieving and everybody especially focusing on how forgiven the families of Charleston, SC Killings has taken us to a new level of social responsibility. I have no doubt this is a temporary feeling of shame until it wears off because no one has acknowledge barred from applying, no one held accountable because Adrienne and others are still employed by the state of South Carolina, South Carolina Human Affairs said it is not illegal to have barred from applying and that it was my fault due to a hostile relationship with SCDEW and the court has even attempted to side with corruption.

I had a gut blasting moment when you and many appeared behind when referring to the flag. I contacted many of them regarding barred from applying before June 17, 2015 and not one sought to help so that was my one of many gut blasting moment.

I do not know exactly where you fit in this puzzle but very confident that efforts made to contact your office were all failed attempts. I can forgive but getting justice is still on the table. I would have sent Clarence a letter not about Charleston, SC Killings, a new found plight for SC and forgiveness but one of an apology, admittance we did wrong, by telling the whole truth, telling the court system to get out of my way and we are going to rectify through justice of holding people accountable and compensation because a crime has been committed.

I do not want to see my tax dollars or a public place given over for racially motivated people to protest! It won't be peaceful this is an act of aggression against blacks to even have to look at KKK hoods or members! Your power seems meager it seems like you are a figurehead for the true powers in SC and that is generations of men who have held this state in oppression and wish for it to still be so. It's refreshing to see a woman in politics not simply acquiescing to men in power but stepping forward as a force to do the right thing.
THANK YOU!!

Gov. to little to late. Your love affair with guns and violence is a cornerstone of your admin. and party. I believe you are truly sorry but you will do nothing to bring common sense to gun issues. Churches are burning, and not by accident. Racism in your state thrives as does mine. Lou [REDACTED]

Dear Mr. [REDACTED]

On the evening of Wednesday, June 17, 2015, the world witnessed a senseless tragedy at Emanuel A.M.E. Church in our beloved Charleston, South Carolina.

Heartbroken, words fail us as we seek to make sense of this unexpected loss of life at one of our places of worship. We will never understand what motivates anyone to commit such a vile and hateful act, but our hearts and minds remain fixed on the nine families and healing our state. The families' grace and strength set a powerful example for us all, and the response of the people of South Carolina helped us strengthen our love for each other.

Even in the midst of our grief, South Carolina set about the process of healing by hugging our neighbors, holding vigils, honoring those we lost, and falling to our knees in prayer. We will continue to come together as a state, as a unified people, and never forget those we lost.

Michael, Rena, Nalin, and I join countless others all over the country in praying for strength during this time of healing and offering our condolences and support to the families affected. God bless.

My very best,

I moved to this fine state a little over 2 years ago from New York and take great pride in calling South Carolina my adopted home. The people of Charleston have shown the world how to conduct themselves with grace and dignity following the horrors of the AME shooting. The community has rallied against bigotry at every turn and now it breaks my heart to hear that the KKK has been given the right to hold a rally on state grounds. Gov. Haley ,you have always acted in a just and swift manner, I am asking that you intervene and revoke the Klans permit. There is no place in this wonderful state for hatred and bigotry, something the Klan thrives on. Please do what you can to keep this cancer out of South Carolina

Thank you

Subject: Urgent for Governor Haley--Thanks for writing me back.

Honorable Governor Haley,

Thank you so much for confirming your receipt of my email by your below shown email. I also appreciated the statement you made in your below email where you said, "We will never understand what motivates anyone to commit such a vile and hateful act", which is a far cry from your I'll see to it that South Carolina takes The Confederate Flag down and I'll make sure South Carolina seeks the death penalty for the person who committed the act comments. "Killing the messenger" and "An eye for an eye", never solved anything wherein I further doubt that either you or your office has the authority to carry out either one of your threats.

Had you said something to the effect that you would do everything in your power to see to it that justice was done in this case, then you wouldn't have sounded like you wanted revenge. Had you then suggested that South Carolina does some soul searching to determine if there is anything we could do as a state to solve such matters from happening again, you would have gone a long way in not sounding almost as hateful as the young South Carolinian who is still innocent of the crime you have made threats to and about.

I'm afraid that the Congregation of Emanuel A.M.E. Church in Charleston and not either you or your office, took the "high road" in this matter wherein they almost immediately "forgave" the person who apparently committed this horrible act and as far as I know have made no comments regarding The Confederate Flag on state grounds.

Please also try to understand that "flag" or "no flag" people in South Carolina and elsewhere who abuse alcohol and drugs have been proven to commit just about any type and kind of crimes possible. If you think taking the "flag" down is going to do anything to resolve the underlying cause of this horrible act, (mental illness, alcoholism, drug addition individually or collectively), you are very sadly, mistaken. If you don't believe me ask the head of the South Carolina Department of Corrections what percentage of people detained in our state prisons are there either because they were high on alcohol or drugs or were in the process of obtaining money or other methods of purchasing alcohol and/or drugs...the number is very near or higher than 90% nationally.

If you are "serious" about finding the solution to these horrible acts then realize that there is but one answer and it lies with a tried and true method of drug and alcohol rehabilitation which I assure you involves God and His Son, Christ Jesus. (BTW, I have worked within South Carolina Prisons and can assure you that there are presently a number of Christian-based people and programs working on this solution right now.)

I realize that you may not be a Christian but my Lord & Savior Jesus the Christ said, "I am the way, the truth, and the life. No one can come to the Father except through me."

"The Father" is of course God which means that if you personally have not accepted Jesus Christ as your Lord & Savior while also recognizing yourself as a sinner then you're never going to get to either Heaven or to God..you like alcoholics and/or drug addicts are simply wasting your time perhaps praying to false gods.

We moved to South Carolina almost two years ago, and therefore have not had the opportunity to vote in a "major" election as SC residents. Until recently, I would have supported you in an election. However, your stance on the removal of the Confederate flag has changed my mind. I find it sad that you, and others, are willing to believe that the cause of the mass shooting was a flag! Really? What causes shootings/murders in those states that don't fly a Confederate flag? I am offended that we are supposed to believe such foolishness, and see our history degraded and disregarded over that belief. I have ancestors who fought in wars in this country since the Revolutionary War, and I feel strongly that they didn't fight so that others could take away the freedoms they fought for. When the time comes that liberals demand the removal of the American flag (you know, the one slavery started under, the one that Native Americans were mistreated under, etc.), will you support them as well? There are some already wanting to take down our country's flag. And it's because you and others 'caved' and want to remove the Confederate flag. The snowball is rolling down the hill. How big will it get and how many other freedoms will it take from us?? I pray for our country, because the direction we are heading is not what our forefathers intended.

<SUBJECT>Concerning the timing of the protest of the Confederate Flag</SUBJECT>

<MSG>

The people of the Mother AME Church had so graciously declined any protest from groups like the black panthers and etc. The elected to do the Christian thing, But here come the Gov. the Pres. and all of the political views on the flag. You took away the focus of what happened at the church, and put it right on the very thing that "Roof" was trying to do, get a war started against the races. Well this isn't exactly a race war but anyway after all of their graciousness and loving and Christian spirit they showed. You took it away from them. What you should have said was, Yes we do have a problem with the flag, and we will discuss that after we have honored these nine great people that have died and laid them to rest. Now we even have a group from some where coming down protesting as the KKK. I didn't know there was such a thing any more. Thank You for your time. I am a 75 year old white lady who has live in SC all of my life. I have never been Racist. Always have had plenty of black friends.....

Subject: RE: Thank you for contacting the office of Governor Haley

Honorable Governor Haley,

I appreciate the sincere response to my outrage at seeing the Confederate flag displayed in your state capital after the hate murders at the Church.

I would ask you to please consider dismissing the charges against two principled and rightfully indignant citizens who acted out of outrage to the display of said flag while internments of the deceased were occurring.

Bree Newsome was arrested for climbing a 30 foot pole and removing the Confederate flag from the front of the South Carolina Statehouse.

She and Jimmy Tyson, the white ally supporting her from the ground, were both charged with "defacing monuments on state capitol grounds" and face up to 3 years in prison and up to a $5,000 fine.

In light of your public response to the flag issue, please consider their actions to be "pardonable" or have the charges against them dismissed for doing what should and could have been done more promptly had your office moved more quickly to acknowledge the odious past association of the Confederate flag with civil rights of persons of color in the deep South.

Respectfully,

Stanley [REDACTED]

Dear Mr. [REDACTED]

Thank you for taking the time to contact us. These have been very difficult times for South Carolina, but our hearts and minds remain fixed on the nine families and the communities shaken by this tragedy. Their grace and strength set a powerful example for us all.

Even in the midst of our grief, South Carolina set about the process of healing - not by talking about issues that divide us - but by hugging our neighbors, holding vigils, honoring those we lost, and falling to our knees in prayer. We came together as a state, as a unified people, to remember those we lost and to begin this healing process.

We've also come together in acknowledging that certain symbols and events of our past resonate differently among us. For some, the Confederate flag represents a history of their ancestry and heritage. For others, the flag is a deeply painful reminder of a brutally oppressive past.

Inspired by the victims' families and the re-opening of Emanuel A.M.E. Church, I felt compelled to make a statement about moving the flag from the Statehouse grounds. This is a moment in which we can say that the flag, while an integral part of our past, does not represent the future of our great state, and that by removing a symbol that divides us, we can move forward as a state in harmony.

The time has come for us to set the flag among the other markers of our history so we can set our eyes on the great promise of a united South Carolina. God bless.

My very best,

Nikki R. Haley

<SUBJECT>Removal of the Confederate Battle Flag</SUBJECT>

<MSG>

I am a lifelong Republican who supported your campaign for Governor and one of the issues I admired at the time was that you indicated that you respected South Carolina History and heritage and that you would not remove the Confederate Flag from its position on the Statehouse grounds. I am appalled that you decided to announce your support to remove the Flag before the 9 innocent people murdered in the AME Church in Charleston had been laid to rest. I believe this to be foolish, unethical and a direct insult to those murdered, their families and to the people of South Carolina. I believe that for you to jump on the band wagon of the race baiters and hate groups such as the NAACP to remove the Confederate Flag at this time was based on emotion and politics and not representative of the people of South Carolina who united to support the families of those murdered. Now, I believe that you have created a more divisive situation in South Carolina on the issue of the Flag that, by the way, had been solved years ago through a compromise made by then Senators McConnell and Ford. I request that you, through a press conference to the people of South Carolina and especially to the families of the 9 murdered, issue an apology for your lapse of judgment. I believe that you should admit to this lapse of judgment and make it clear that you will support the majority decision of the State Legislature whether it is a vote to keep the Flag in place or a vote to take it down. Might I remind you that you were elected to office by a majority of the voters of South Carolina and took an oath to represent the will of the majority. If you cannot honor your oath of office, then you should resign as Governor of the State of South Carolina. Sincerely, Victor A. [REDACTED]

Dear Governor Haley

First, let me say that I have been, until now, one of your most avid supporters. So much so that I have given you my sacred VOTE. Now, I am asking that you rethink your stand on the Confederate flag. That flag is part of our Southern heritage, and outside elements are trying to force "political correctness" on us. Americans are utterly fed up with political correctness. That flag does not represent racism and hate.

As a life long South Carolinian and Charleston resident until two years ago, I am horrified, disgusted and undone by the events that took place in Charleston at AME Emmanuel. But those events have nothing to do with the flag. It is a completely separate issue. Outside agents such as Al Sharpton and the NAACP were, for all intents and purposes, run out of Charleston and were unable to stir up racial strife and unrest, so they are now concentrating their efforts on the flag issue, and attempting to paint us as racists if we don't give in to their pressure.

I am strongly urging you not to give it to that pressure and leave our flag alone! Thank you.

Sincerely,

Betty E. [REDACTED]

Here is a rule of thumb: Do not poke a stick at a hornet's nest. Please understand you have done this in a big way! The terrible tragedy in Charleston was a moment we can no more retrieve than the stick in the hornet's nest. The Confederate flag did not cause Dylann Roof to commit the insane act any more than burning AME churches will keep it flying. Both these senseless acts are the work of criminally insane people.

When the tragedy first occurred, hate mongers baited you with taking down the flag and you wisely sidestepped them. I hoped you would stay on the high road and not sink to their level, but they have trapped you and I really see no way out for you. You can never make one group mad in order to appease the other and win. I can only hope our legislators can understand this and bail you out. You can do much to prevent the reoccurrence of these types of acts by speaking directly to the mothers in South Carolina and letting them know they have a resource in your office to use for help when they have a child such as Dylann. His mother, his stepmother and many school officials will tell you they knew he was turning evil but felt they had no where to turn for help. When the arsonist burning these Churches are found, soon I hope, there will be people who will tell you that they knew early on these people were evil. Put the power of your office behind getting the help needed to the adults in these cases. You will be helping those who need it the most and preventing more senseless act of violence.

Dear. Governor Haley: I write to congratulate you on the compassion and leadership you have shown since the tragic murders at Emanuel AME. If you manage to get that flag taken down, you will have earned your own "Profile in Courage." I can see on your face at the broadcast funerals that this has hit you hard. I believe you when you say you will make this right. I want you to know how many people around the country are rooting for you, as you do the right thing. I know you've got this awful Klan group coming on July 18. Their presence will prove beyond any doubt why the flag can't fly at the South Carolina Statehouse any longer, as their statements already have. I hope the thousands of Charlestonians who walked across the Bridge to Unity turn out in a peaceful counter-rally to show that these mean-spirited outsiders will not divide the Holy City or the Palmetto State. Keep up the good work, you are showing true leadership unlike most of the GOP men now in the headlines! Bless you.

I moved to this fine state a little over 2 years ago from New York and take great pride in calling South Carolina my adopted home. The people of Charleston have shown the world how to conduct themselves with grace and dignity following the horrors of the AME shooting. The community has rallied against bigotry at every turn and now it breaks my heart to hear that the KKK has been given the right to hold a rally on state grounds. Gov. Haley, you have always acted in a just and swift manner, I am asking that you intervene and revoke the Klans permit. There is no place in this wonderful state for hatred and bigotry, something the Klan thrives on. Please do what you can to keep this cancer out of South Carolina

My family is heartbroken over the Church murders in your State. Our sympathies, thoughts, and prayers are with the victims families. This is a real tragedy when you can no longer preach or pray in the United States of America safely. Black Christians are the Bedrock of our Country and our Southern States. This tragedy was a horrific blow to the African American Southern Christian community, as well as African Americans as a whole. This really sends a message, "Nothing is sacred."

Christians everyday are being persecuted for their beliefs in the most horrific ways by the world terrorist group, ISIS. No one is speaking up for the youngest of innocents being raped, tortured, beheaded, and killed. There is a Christian genocide happening right now on the other side of the world!!! ISIS kills everyday and our country is not being effective enough in its war against terror. Additionally, the Charleston shooting was a terror that hit so many horrifically here at home. But, I feel this was a blow to both communities, Black and Southern (Conservative) Whites. Racial tensions, right here in our nation have been heating up by liberal "instigators" and publicized by "Leftist-owned" main stream media channels to ignite problems and situations here on our home front, keeping us citizens fighting ideologies while the communist, leftist liberal politicians move on a much bigger agenda, "The New World Order." This movement is bigger than you and me and is inevitable with if no one in power begins to "tribe-up" and push back. I could be wrong and it could possibly be just too late since this agenda has been well underway.

I am writing to you because the Southern Flag should be flown in the South. The citizens, your voters, do not want this. It will kill morale, Southern history, heritage, language, and change culture. Liberals are all about destroying the very institutions we believe in that made our country GREAT, EXCEPTIONAL, and Number One. Leftist-liberals and their instigators are responsible for pushing ideologies of Racism and confusing others that this flag is Racist. Liberal ideologies are running lawless in our country and are out of control by the day. When you think you heard it all another headline tops the media that is more shocking and unbelievable! I am a native Chicagoan and Northerner. Now, I live and reside in Mississippi. I've relocated my husband and family away from the big City into the Southern Countryside to bring sense back into our lives. The Southern Culture and Heritage is more aligned with my upbringing, morals, and belief-system. Their overall down-home ideologies of life, work, family, God, and conservatism, has giving me a sense of safety that not everything in our nation has been destroyed by racist, leftist ideas. I am a married, educated, Christian mother of six children and Mississippi has become our home and safety-zone from the craziness of the world, allowing me to raise my children freely, support my husband's career and grow our Logging operations, in hopes of capturing bits of pieces of the "American Dream" before that dream goes obsolete and underground. Chicago, the great City of my childhood, has been broken down over the years by liberal ideologies attacking every aspect of life, creating wide spread moral decay in its politics and residents. thus, depleting overall quality of city-life. Conservatism is being demonized, everywhere. Its counterparts are heavily funded and out number us amongst the people (as so it seems).

Republicans and Conservatives have been labeled racist and everyday American rights are threatened by the swipe of a pen or gross tragedy. Republicans are NOT the party of race. I am not racist! I am American first, and, now, Southern and I believe in keeping the Confederate flag. This flag brings over-whelming pride, heritage, and belief in Southern traditions. Respect those that died fighting for their lives lost were not in Vain. Don't allow liberal ideologies to dictate and puppet your reactions because the People do not want this! Everything that government is doing the People do not want. We are loosing our Country overnight. Stay Strong and as a Southern Woman stand-up for our Language, Culture, and Heritage and put an end to this communist non sense. Educate them that this flag and the Southern people are not racist. We won't submit, but we will stand behind you and support you as long as you are good for the South and America. Thank you for your service and good luck!!

Just quickly, I wanted to add because so many do not know that slave owners consisted of only 2% of the Southern population during the Confederacy. The other 98% of the families that were involved in this fighting were regular Southern farm families like mine is today. This war came about because the South was sick of taking directions from the North. Northern liberals know nothing of the way of life down here. Hard, steady work; our families; survival; and obedience to God is the Southern way of life that must be preserved. Our history must be preserved and not shunned for future generations or new immigrants that have flooded our States. Our lives down here matter too! We reject the demonizing rhetoric put on by liberals that floods our main stream media channels, stereo-typing the South as all Racists! In fact, race relations down South here are better than the race relations up North. The Democrats are the party of Race, not me! I am a Conservative Republican. My family never owned slaves. I am only 2nd generation here. But, the history of the flag and the Flag itself should still stand tall. Every institution, us, true Americans cherish, love, and defend so dear has been torn down or is in-the-process of being torn down by the political forefront sweeping through our country by leftist ideologies, their agenda and a simple pen swipe. The horrific, stomach-turning tragedy of Charleston is ungodly and Christians, everyday are being persecuted by ISIS. But, don't let them take the Southern flag because if this is allowed the liberals will not stop. They never do! They are power-grabbers, family destroyers, American culture haters, self-centered, ungodly people with an AGENDA that are destroying us from the inside out! Everything Americans love and hold dear is being ATTACKED! Don't submit to these liberal ideologies, dictating our ways of everyday life and our cherished past, erasing and changing history that can't be changed! Don't let the liberals puppet your position. Stand up for the South and Charleston's citizens. We need someone to hear our cries and speak up for us. Will you do this? The people don't want this! Reconsider only taking the flag down temporarily for the Victims, in your State, but the flag must remain because the South will not submit to these liberal tactics and ideologies.

You clearly did not read my email. You just sent your generic standard reply.

If you did read it, you would understand why you should leave the flag up. Anyway, I am finished arguing with you. Might as well be a brick wall.

Get ready to lose. I promise you I am sending money to whoever your next challenger is. I never lived in PA either, but I sent money to Pat Toomey to get rid of that dirtbag Arlen Specter. You are in for the same fate.

Thank you for your reply to my email. When people say "federate flag represents a history of their ancestry and heritage" what heritage is that? The flag was from the Civil War. I can't help but think that it can only mean SC succeeding from America and fighting to maintain slavery and causing a war that ended with 620,000 dead. Our pride and heritage should be in the American flag. [REDACTED]

Thank you for getting back to me as communication between those who support symbols that offend don't like it when they are attacked on a individual basis. As a Jew the Battle Flag of the Confederacy was and is no different than the Nazi Fag of WW11. That Nazi flag has been banned in Germany since the end of WW11 in 1945 with punishment of Jail for those who defy that law. Bob

Even in the midst of our grief, South Carolina set about the process of healing – not by talking about issues that divide us – but by hugging our neighbors, holding vigils, honoring those we lost, and falling to our knees in prayer. We came together as a state, as a unified people, to remember those we lost and to begin this healing process.

We've also come together in acknowledging that certain symbols and events of our past resonate differently among us. For some, the Confederate flag represents a history of their ancestry and heritage. For others, the flag is a deeply painful reminder of a brutally oppressive past.

Inspired by the victims' families and the re-opening of Emanuel A.M.E. church, I felt compelled to make a statement about moving the flag from the Statehouse grounds. This is a moment in which we can say that the flag, while an integral part of our past, does not represent the future of our great state, and that by removing a symbol that divides us, we can move forward as a state in harmony.

The time has come for us to set the flag among the other markers of our history so we can set our eyes on the great promise of a united South Carolina. God bless.

Governor Haley: Thank you for the thoughtful response. I do disagree with you as I see no connection between the Flag and the incident. The alleged perpetrator was a product of an irresponsible society that has become the norm in America and did not represent your or my heritage.

I feel it is a time to focus on problems in society and not make quick decisions based on perceived symbolism. Removing the Flag will not reduce crime in Charleston or serve to curb the random acts of violence so common today. Likewise it will not serve to improve harmony between the radical outliers in both the black and white communities of the State. What we Governor Haley is a more responsible society that takes care of itself and no government can provide that.

Thank you again for your comments to distantly displaced resident of South Carolina.

Taking down the "FLAG" isn't going to stop PREJUDICE! That is an OXYMORON! I tried to find the Confederate Museum on Gervais St., WHAT A JOKE! If you were set on unifying this state, than as Governor, Why haven't you asked the city council to Revoke the permits of the N.C. KKK, and the NEONAZIS NEW BLACK PANTHERS to demonstrate here in Columbia? Why did our House and Senate crumble to a bunch of demonstrators who were not even from S.C.? So we let outsiders dictate policy to S.C.! The Black Sons and Daughters of the Confederacy asked to keep the "FLAG" on Statehouse Grounds, and that is the real facts, since I researched this whole mess! Why was I threatened by a HOOLIGAN of the NAACP, and Police Officers did not to defend my RIGHTS as a Peaceful Citizen just trying to get some facts on who were the people supporting keeping the "FLAG" flying?

You talk about fair treatment, again - WHAT A JOKE! The "FLAG" did not kill those people, the LAW let those people get killed, because he threatened on the internet to kill somebody, and he already had a criminal record! He should have been arrested on intent! WHAT A BUNCH OF CROCK, IF EVER READ ANY! This all about money and the proposed new Baseball team that will only create about 10 -15 jobs. [REDACTED]

I agree with what you said but I still think the PEOPLE OF SOUTH CAROLINA SHOULD BE THE ONES TO MAKE A DECISION TO LEAVE OR REMOVE THE HISTORY FLAG, NOT ONE GOV. OR A FEW SENATORS. IT SHOULD BE PUT BEFORE THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE FOR A VOTE, THAT IS THE FAIR AND DEMOCRATIC WAY OF DOING ANYTHING, AGAIN NOT ONE PERSON OR A FEW SENATORS MAKING THE DECISION. AS IT IS IT APPEARS WHO EVER HOLLERS THE LOUDEST. THAT FLAG IS NOT A RACIST FLAG, MANY PEOPLE ON BOTH SIDES DIED, IT WASN'T ABOUT SLAVERY TO START WITH.

Governor Haley, The decisions that our present administration in South Carolina make on this matter I am sure will be reflected in upcoming elections. I, for one, with the assist of social media, may make a difference. I am tired of the minority speaking for the majority. I am tired of being told what to think and having no support for the majority decisions. This should have been put to a vote of the people of this great state and then let the people speak.

Thank you for your stand.

I know where my vote will be in the next election.

I bet the REBEL FLAG caused the two planes to collide in South Carolina, just shows how stupid what your doing is you can blame everything on the Flag. I will fly mine with pride to honor my ancestors who died for something they thought to be correct thing to do, by the way you just as well replace it with a Mexican flag or maybe a ISIS flag, and by the way that bunch of blacks with the Governor look like a bunch of black panthers, im stocking up on ammo just in case. nothing like a good fight. Vietnam 1968 and 1969.

Gov. to little to late. Your love affair with guns and violence is a cornerstone of your admin. and party. I believe you are truly sorry but you will do nothing to bring common sense to gun issues. Churches are burning, and not by accident. Racism in your state thrives as does mine. Lou [REDACTED]

Dear Mr. [REDACTED]

On the evening of Wednesday, June 17, 2015, the world witnessed a senseless tragedy at Emanuel A.M.E. Church in our beloved Charleston, South Carolina.

Heartbroken, words fail us as we seek to make sense of this unexpected loss of life at one of our places of worship. We will never understand what motivates anyone to commit such a vile and hateful act, but our hearts and minds remain fixed on the nine families and healing our state. The families' grace and strength set a powerful example for us all, and the response of the people of South Carolina helped us strengthen our love for each other.

Even in the midst of our grief, South Carolina set about the process of healing by hugging our neighbors, holding vigils, honoring those we lost, and falling to our knees in prayer. We will continue to come together as a state, as a unified people, and never forget those we lost.

Michael, Rena, Nalin, and I join countless others all over the country in praying for strength during this time of healing and offering our condolences and support to the families affected. God bless.

Governor,

I appreciate your response to my earlier message however I am extremely disappointed in your actions related to the flag. I honestly only had a surface awareness of the flag prior to this event but now I have studied it a bit more carefully. Here is where I have an issue - you were taking all the right actions in Charleston after the shooting. Our state was turning into a model for the nation. Then you drug out the flag issue and turned what would have been a positive for our state into a national spectacle. I don't know if you thought of removing the flag or if someone on your staff thought of it but it was a horrid idea and it will be politically costly to you. If a staff member advised you on this topic, I suggest you fire them immediately. It's clear you did not have a handle on the scope of public opinion around this matter in our great state, nor and understanding of how such a knee jerk reaction would have across America. My personal thoughts are you have tainted the good example the Great State of SC could and was setting for our country with these actions.

I have enjoyed voting for you in the past however it's only fair I let you know I will not vote for you in the future and I will encourage others to not vote to keep you in office. The lack of good judgment on this issue and the proposals to increase SC gas tax to match that of NC all tell me you have become way to politicized while in office. I was also very disappointed in the loss of SC residents private income tax filing information.

Sincerely,

Ronald J. [REDACTED]

Dear Office of Gov. Haley;

Thank you for your reply to my email. My only concern regarding the Confederate flag was that I thought that it should have been lowered to half staff after the tragedy in Charleston, the same as the two flags that fly over the capital building; that was my only point. I have since learned from the news media that said flag cannot be changed in any way without the permission of the legislature.

Again thank you for your reply.

Kind regards,

T. Dwight [REDACTED]

We came together as a state, as a unified people, to remember those we lost and to begin this healing process.

We've also come together in acknowledging that certain symbols and events of our past resonate differently among us. For some, the Confederate flag represents a history of their ancestry and heritage. For others, the flag is a deeply painful reminder of a brutally oppressive past.

Inspired by the victims' families and the re-opening of Emanuel A.M.E. church, I felt compelled to make a statement about moving the flag from the Statehouse grounds. This is a moment in which we can say that the flag, while an integral part of our past, does not represent the future of our great state, and that by removing a symbol that divides us, we can move forward as a state in harmony.

The time has come for us to set the flag among the other markers of our history so we can set our eyes on the great promise of a united South Carolina. God bless.

Your cowardly response is pure sell-out, knee-jerk, reverse-racism propaganda. You must have had a team of monkeys working on it for days. Only one community was affected by the shooting in Charleston. It was a local matter, nothing more. The black community needs to spend its time on self-examination and reflection on why white people feel the way they do towards black people. Could it be because they commit crimes such as rape, murder, and theft at such a high rate as compared to other races? Could it be because the black culture embraces gangsters, pimps, and rappers as role models? What would their hero, Martin Luther King, say if he could see them now? That is what the nine families need to be focusing on, not the Confederate flag. If the Confederate flag has to go in the history books, then so do all visual reminders of slavery and the civil rights movement. If they are all linked, then collectively they must all either stay or go. It is unfair, unjust, and conspicuously prejudicial to arbitrarily select the flag for relegation to some dusty museum. That flag is not a relic of the past any more than anything else. The Confederate flag is a proud, living symbol of Southern heritage and it must be revered as such. Yankees and foreigners that don't like the flag are free to catch a bus or plane out of South Carolina. In short, just get the hell out if you don't like it.

Haley, you are the wrong side of this issue. If you had done this during your first term, you would not have had a second term. In any case, your political career is over--just like Roy Barnes of Georgia.

GOD BLESS you and ALL in Charleston and ALL in South Carolina.

There is only ONE 'race' and it is the "human race" - we just have different pigment colors to our skin.

I will always be a proud 'Gamecock' and the way the you and the state of SC have handled this crisis is just another reason that I am proud of ALL.

Dear Governor.

Thank you for the reply. I respectfully, and totally disagree with your stance on the flag. It has nothing to do with the tragedy. I do know that you ARE a native South Carolinian, and that it was your parents who immigrated. I also realize that during your formative years you heard a lot of misinformation in your history classes. South Carolina had more battles fought on her territory than any other state in both the Civil and Revolutionary Wars. That we allowed outside interests to push the issue of "the flag" is shameful. You want things to be different in the aftermath of the tragic shooting, and yet you must remember that those who forget (or cover up) their history are doomed to repeat it.

Here is my positive thought for the day, and I do not understand why someone there in Columbia could not come up with a similar idea. The flag should, by any and all means, fly above every historic monument. If that monument (or all of them) need to be on other than State of South Carolina property, then move them all.

Turn them all over to museums where the flag may wave freely, and purposefully. You will still have kept your promise, and the flag will not be on state property. And those who honor the flag, along with those whom it honors, will be happy.

Sincerely, Stephen M. [REDACTED]

Dear Governor Haley,

Congratulations on your leadership and statesmanlike management of the flag controversy. Your gracious public statement, which is summarized in your response below, should be a model for contemporary American politics. Our country needs more leaders who understand the passions on both sides of issues and who can find a path to reconciliation through mutual respect and understanding.

Dear Governor Haley,

Thank you for the form letter your staff has worked hard to write and mail out. In reply I have two thoughts. First, it's about time. Second, I'll believe it when I see it. I resent the not very subtle crap about talking about issues that divide us. You wouldn't have to be talking about it after nine racially motivated murders if you had taken that embarrassing mess of a flag down long ago.

Quite disrespectfully yours,

Thanks for the response, However I dont understand how you think taking down the flag will unite The state. If you thought this why didnt you bring it up during your campaign? I assure you it will not unite the state of South Carolina ! in Fact you have already Started the division of the state with this issue. There was unity and a pouring out of love after the Charleston incident therefore squashing what the shooter had hoped to accomplish by his cowardly act. But then you and the Hate filled race baiters Such as Sharpton And Jesse Jackson brought the Flag into the mix like you thought we wouldnt fight back. Thus causing Divisiveness throughout the state. In case you didnt know CNN did a poll and found that the Majority of us want the Flag to stay!! So I ask you Governor how is your calling for it to be removed going to unite the state?

Governor Haley:

Thanks very much for taking the time to reply to my message. I must say first of all that I was impressed by the class and dignity with which the city of Charleston handled this tragic situation, as opposed to recent events in Ferguson, Baltimore, New York, and other cities across the United States. Charleston should be held up as an example as to how these challenges should be dealt with, and I would have expected nothing less from that fine city. However, I see the "going forward" actions by the State of South Carolina as an unconscionable act of political opportunism that has since turned into the equivalent of a nationwide "book burning" with you leading the charge.

Your decision to take this action regarding the Battle Flag has led to a national attack on all Southern History and Heritage, starting with your State House and going as far as NASCAR and the removal of "The Dukes of Hazzard" from TV screens across the country. I realize that what happens outside the State of South Carolina isn't your problem, but it started with you and has spiraled out of control into an effort to restrict free speech and to put an end to truth in history. This to a large extent has already been done, as we don't teach history or civics in our schools any more. However, it has also led to an unprecedented backlash by regular Americans to fly the flag in defiance of a government out of control with political correctness. See the crowds at the Daytona 500 as an example.

That flag does not divide us. People divide us. That flag had nothing to do with the killing in Charleston. A sick, demented, twisted mind was the cause of that. The flag is not a symbol of hate, but is a TARGET of hate, an OBJECT of hate, and you and the rest of the legislative body there are falling into the trap. Your actions and the actions of the Senate are appealing only a loud minority who is more than willing to give up MY basic rights in order to feel good about themselves or to make others feel better.

And the majority suffers, as has been the case in this country for many years now.

"Any society which suppresses the heritage of its conquered minorities, prevents their history, and denies them their symbols, has sewn the seed of its own destruction."

-Sir William Wallace 1281 A.D.

Even in the midst of our grief, South Carolina set about the process of healing - not by talking about issues that divide us - but by hugging our neighbors, holding vigils, honoring those we lost, and falling to our knees in prayer. We came together as a state, as a unified people, to remember those we lost and to begin this healing process.

We've also come together in acknowledging that certain symbols and events of our past resonate differently among us. For some, the Confederate flag represents a history of their ancestry and heritage. For others, the flag is a deeply painful reminder of a brutally oppressive past.

Inspired by the victims' families and the re-opening of Emanuel A.M.E. church, I felt compelled to make a statement about moving the flag from the Statehouse grounds. This is a moment in which we can say that the flag, while an integral part of our past, does not represent the future of our great state, and that by removing a symbol that divides us, we can move forward as a state in harmony.

The time has come for us to set the flag among the other markers of our history so we can set our eyes on the great promise of a united South Carolina. God bless.

My very best,

Nikki R. Haley

<MSG>

Dear Governor Haley:

My deepest sympathies go out to you and the people of South Carolina over the tragic and senseless racist shooting of innocent people going peacefully about their lives.

Your decision to remove the Confederate flag from public space is, I believe, a proper moral gesture. Your action is an immediate symbolic response by state government to recognize moral work which lies ahead for the people of South Carolina, and also for the people of this nation.

You are correct, I believe, to encourage removal of the flag from public spaces that are not uniquely set out to display the flag very clearly as an historical artifact. Its flying over the state capitol is not such a space. Its display is at best morally ambiguous. At worst, it is racist, being a symbol used in the past to represent racist belief.

I applaud your courage in taking this step. Doing so will be the start of a much longer and more difficult conversation among citizens of your state, and among citizens of the United States. It is not an easy conversation, but it is one long past due.

Please know that there are many people in this country who are standing with you in your decision.

With greatest respect,

John [REDACTED] Ph. D.

Dear Governor Haley,

Thank you for your response to my email. I have direct ancestors who fought bravely for states rights during the War Between the States. Although, I must say that most had few slaves, if any. Thankfully, one of the good things that came from that horrible war was an end to slavery in our nation.

I appreciate your leadership in our state, and I would like to see this flag in a proper place among other relics of our history. History is so very important! Please make sure that our history is correctly passed on to future generations. The good, the bad and the ugly. None of this politically correct garbage! There is so much good history to glean from the Old South.

Let's move forward as one people working together for our beautiful South Carolina.
 God bless, Ginger [REDACTED]

I agree with what you said but I still think the PEOPLE OF SOUTH CAROLINA SHOULD BE THE ONES TO MAKE A DECISION TO LEAVE OR REMOVE THE HISTORY FLAG, NOT ONE GOV. OR A FEW SENATORS. IT SHOULD BE PUT BEFORE THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE FOR A VOTE, THAT IS THE FAIR AND DEMOCRATIC WAY OF DOING ANYTHING, AGAIN NOT ONE PERSON OR A FEW SENATORS MAKING THE DECISION. AS IT IS IT APPEARS WHO EVER HOLLERS THE LOUDEST. THAT FLAG IS NOT A RACIST FLAG, MANY PEOPLE ON BOTH SIDES DIED, IT WASN'T ABOUT SLAVERY TO START WITH.

Dear Mr. [REDACTED]

Thank
you for taking the time to contact us.

These have been very difficult times
for South Carolina, but our hearts and minds remain fixed on the nine families and the communities shaken
by this tragedy.

Their grace and strength set a powerful example
for us all.

Even
in the midst of our grief, South Carolina set about the process of healing – not by talking about issues
that divide us – but by hugging our neighbors, holding vigils, honoring those we lost, and falling

We came together as a state, as a unified people, to remember those we lost and to begin this healing process.

We've
also come together in acknowledging that certain symbols and events of our past resonate differently among us.

For some, the Confederate flag represents a history of their ancestry and heritage.

For others, the flag is a deeply painful
reminder of a brutally oppressive past.

Inspired
by
the victims' families and the re-opening of Emanuel
A.M.E. church, I felt compelled to make a statement about moving the flag from the Statehouse grounds.

This is a moment
in which we can say that the flag, while an integral part of our past, does not represent the future of our great state, and that by removing a symbol that divides us, we can move forward as a state in harmony.

The

Just so you don't get the wrong idea I agree with not allowing the KKK to have a soapbox to spew what would more than likely be a hate dialog. Not permitting them to stir up trouble was the right decision but who allowed the Black Panthers a permit for them to spew their hate and call for killing descendents of slave owner and their families. I don't think that anyone black or white should be allowed to stand before a crowd and preach what they did. If the New York transit authority can refuse certain adds along with many other transportation departments in the US then as a citizen of the State of SC I shouldn't be subject to that type of display from anyone. I always though if you threatened someones life that you could and should be arrested. There is nothing wrong with peaceful demonstration but when it turns violent the government needs to go on record that they will shoot to kill. If this was done in Ferguson and Baltimore they wouldn't have had the problems they did. A good dose of common sense goes along way. Ps. I am a 100% Nicki Haley supporter and believe she did the right thing on the flag even though I am also a proud southerner.

You are making a big mistake by giving into the demands of vengeful blacks and liberals by removing the Confederate flag. I realize your ancestors did not come from the South or even from America and that you don't have a dog in this fight, but you are failing those of us who are from the South and have pride in our history. Don't you realize that blacks and liberals are merely using the murder of those people in that church as a reason to take down the flag? That young man who committed the murders was mentally ill. He doesn't represent the rest of us who love the Confederate flag, so why punish us? Blacks and liberals want to wipe out history, punish white Americans, especially those of us in the South, they want to be victims forever because it benefits them, and you've played along with that mindset. I thought you might be smarter than that.

As a current homeowner in Charleston, and a future resident (within two years), I wish to express my heartfelt sadness for the victims of the horrific hate crime in the A.M.E. church last week.

Furthermore, I want to unequivocally state that the allowance of the KKK to hold a rally with the intent to support the continued posting of the Confederate Flag is unconscionable and disgusting. I don't know how to respond except to say that I am reconsidering living in a city that cannot without reservation ban the appearance of an organization that represents the hatred that spawns such crimes against humanity. Shame on South Carolina if it does not take a stand against this rally.

You at first seemed so wise and rational to postpone any consideration of the flag monument at the capitol until after the funerals for the nine following the murder at the Church. Wisdom gave way as you switched positions calling for the immediate removal while emotions were high and rationality was nowhere to be found. One very vocal advocate of removing what she described as a "hate symbol" couldn't describe it or state its color. It should be remembered that we are a country wherein our government governs at the consent of the people. Process is important.

I am concerned about your recent public statements and stance concerning the Battle Flag of the Southern States. I too mourn the loss of the fine Christian people at the church in Charleston but the out cry to do away with the symbol of the heritage of many honorable southerners is totally uncalled for. You cannot make history go away. You can however study history and make sense and understanding of it. The Rebel Flag is not a symbol of racism even though people try to look at it as such. It is a symbol honoring those Americans who fought and died for what they believed in. Contrary to popular belief the war between the states did not start to free the slaves. I voted for you in the last 2 elections and have always praised you for your leadership. Your latest stance leaves me wondering if your really the leader I thought you were or just another politician who has jumped on the "politically correct" band wagon in hopes of another election victory. To say the least I am very disappointed in you.

May I ask you if this guy was holding a book of martin luther king or a gay flag, would you be trying to remove this? I comment the people in the charleston church and family members for the christian, yes I said christian!!!!!! Way they are handling this. S.c. is not doing so good, they are letting a bunch of outsiders come in and destroy what these wonderful christian people have done. You will not receive my vote in the next election or anyone I know as I have already heard their opinions.

Dear Governor,

Please cease bullying and threatening our elected representatives. Your teary behavior is unacceptable and a slap in the face of all of us who had relatives killed, maimed, wounded, imprisoned. Captured, tortured, torn from their families, lost everything, endured unimaginable hardships, suffered greatly in despair and never gave up on SC. They asked only to be remembered and honored in their deaths and sacrifices.

The battle banner represents all of this and seems beyond your apparent limited grasp of history. You have caved to a terrorizing bullying movement of hate and political opportunism.

What a travesty and collapse of true leadership for all you have ignited. You have abandoned your vow to represent us all.

In great sadness,

Subject: Urgent Communication: All Lives Matter

Dear Ms. [REDACTED]

I am a concerned native South Carolinian and happened to see your emotional speech on the late night news. Frankly, I was shocked that a woman of your education has failed to grasp the significance of our honored Civil War Memorial, which heralds the thousands of brave South Carolinians, including many of my ancestors, whose lives mattered. They still matter. They still reach to us from their pitiful graves, many robbed of their commemorative markings through acts of criminal violence, theft and desecration perpetuated by false misrepresentations of history fueled by such as yours.

I wanted you to know that I, with dozens of others, I know in the lowcountry and across the state abhor your comments and bullying strategy. We too grieve for all victims of violence. Their lives matter too. But, we cannot forget nor should we, our past and our brave defenders of our South Carolina. Do not let their sacrifices be in vain. Their lives matter. Their lives matter. Their lives matter. The battle cloth did not kill the nine in Charleston no more than the Golds Gym's t-shirt or the burned American flag or the dysfunctional family or any other symbol used by the shooter, killed them either. Do not allow your grief to overwhelm reason and sound judgment. Words matter. All lives matter. Our defenders of South Carolina matter too.

I will follow your vote and pray you demonstrate that all lives matter. South Carolina deserves your unabashed support of her history and her defenders.

Most Sincerely,

James [REDACTED]

As you well know, Confederate Soldiers were also veterans of America. My 2nd great grandfather, a poor farmer and a confederate veteran, received a pension from the United States of America until his death. I honor his patriotism and bravery.

The Confederate Flag does not represent hate, but heritage and men of strong convictions standing up to a tyrannical government, with South Carolina being the first to succeed and the first to fire shots. How can we as South Carolinians today forget the grit and determination of these people, black, white, Native American, etc., that helped to make this state great?

I ask that you reconsider your stand on removing the Confederate flag from the State House grounds.

With deepest regards,

Denise [REDACTED]

Dear Gov. Haley,

Thank You for your reply but it did not address the matter in which I wrote. I agree that the Southern Cross needs to be in the Confederate Relic Room, but you did not or your Aide did not address the suggestion that I presented that would have been a perfect compromise that would have been accepted by all groups. As I mentioned. The day I initially wrote to you, Representative Jim Clyburn made the statement that any other flag would be accepted at the monument other than the Battle Flag. Not to mention that the NAACP was the one who agreed that the location was acceptable once it was removed from the Dome.

I do not believe that the Southern Cross should have ever been flown from the Dome or the Monument. The Stars and Bars should have been the flag that flew from the Dome, but then removed at the end of the centennial celebration. The Stars and Bars could have been flown at the Monument but I believe The Bonnie Blue would have been a more proper Flag, if you look at the history of the Confederacy. Once again No representation of hatred or slavery is connected with it so it would have been an acceptable compromise to all parties.

At this point, from the press briefings I have heard so far, there is no option of a compromise. A large faction of citizens of South Carolina will be disenfranchised. As I am not a politician and have never wanted to be one, I do not understand the political mind, but I am a South Carolinian. One thing we have tried to maintain is, a unified front against all those who are not from S.C. because those from outside always believe that we in the south are backwards or uneducated. Please pardon my French but we shocked the hell out of the country the way that the Family of the Murdered 9, the People of Charleston and the people of South Carolina all came together as one in support of those families and friends. Those who came into the State were amazed at the hospitality of our citizens even in the face of such sorrow and pain.

It is a crying shame that this flag flap has marred the image of our State. It is not that We have done it all either, but so much of it is being done by outsiders, like the Klan and the Black Panthers, coming into our State and making us look bad.

I do not envy you in your position in the next few weeks, but you do have my prayers for strength and guidance in this time of trials and tribulations for our State.

For GOD, Country and our State.

Rev. Frederick C. [REDACTED]

Dear Governor Haley,

Thank you for your response back to me. I agree with everything you said, but, the problem I have now (along with many other Americans) is that our state and federal government is doing everything that they think is politically correct and not necessarily the right thing to do. I am 68 years young and I have NEVER seen anything like our nation and world is like it is today. Illegals getting social security, killing people, raping women, etc.. Obamacare breaking people who can't afford it and then having to pay a penalty if they don't sign up (which was made up of a bunch of lies), now gay marriage passed by the Supreme Court (politically correct), terrorist all over the world and Obama not doing crap, Iran with Nuclear bombs, the U.S. Not standing with Isreal, Obama not approving Keystone, etc., etc.!

I am so tired of all our government. You all are chickens, not willing to stand up to your real belief, just being politically correct. I am not racist, do not believe in slavery. I hate NAACP, KKK, Black Panthers. Now there is a group called NAAWP. Now I hear that the KKK and Black Panthers are going to meet in your state. Sure that will be nice!

I believe in GOD and will follow his words and not human words. If you have noticed, Christianity is even going downhill. We better all wake up before America is destroyed.

Thank you.

Dear Nikki,

I respectfully disagree with your decision. While I understand that people are hurting, it does them and your state a disservice to wrongfully focus on an icon as the source of pain and strife. Do you even know your U.S. history? Why not educate people rather than pander to high emotion? Wouldn't it help heal the "divide" if the general public understood the true cause of the civil war (unfair taxes and political manipulation by the power elite rather than slavery)?

Dear Mrs. [REDACTED]

Thank you for taking the time to contact us. These have been very difficult times for South Carolina, but our hearts and minds remain fixed on the nine families and the communities shaken by this tragedy. Their grace and strength set a powerful example for us all.

Even in the midst of our grief, South Carolina set about the process of healing – not by talking about issues that divide us – but by hugging our neighbors, holding vigils, honoring those we lost, and falling to our knees in prayer. We came together as a state, as a unified people, to remember those we lost and to begin this healing process.

We've also come together in acknowledging that certain symbols and events of our past resonate differently among us. For some, the Confederate flag represents a history of their ancestry and heritage. For others, the flag is a deeply painful reminder of a brutally oppressive past.

Inspired by the victims' families and the re-opening of Emanuel A.M.E. Church, I felt compelled to make a statement about moving the flag from the Statehouse grounds. This is a moment in which we can say that the flag, while an integral part of our past, does not represent the future of our great state, and that by removing a symbol that divides us, we can move forward as a state in harmony.

The time has come for us to set the flag among the other markers of our history so we can set our eyes on the great promise of a united South Carolina. God bless.

My very best,

Well it's obvious y'all are going to so away with the flag. You along with others do not care what the people in South Carolina want because if you did, it would be left up to US to vote whether to keep the flag but that's not happening because you know if it was left up to vote, the flag would remain. The flag did not kill those people, Mrs. Haley but yet so many are acting like it. We are not uniting together as a state, this issue is dividing us because of the people in power like you that decided it needed to come down. You started a race war. And why? Because someone held up the confederate flag in a picture? What about the burning American flag, Mrs. Haley? Is that going to come down too because if you knew anything about this history you would know the KKK also has used that flag. All that taking that flag down does it insult our ancestors white AND black. It's sad, that flag goes down and the rainbow colors go up. So yes, God bless because we all certainly need it. This nation is going downhill, just like the Bible says it would in the end times. We all know what God says about gay marriage. President Obama claims to be Christian but yet tweets about love is equal. You cannot support that and be Christian. You can respect others, but not support it. The end of days are upon us so make wiser decisions governor. Be blessed. Sent from Yahoo Mail for iPhone At Jul 8, 2015, 12:09:14 PM.

 Subject: Re: Thank you for contacting the office of Governor Haley

Thank you Governor Haley. I did not know if I would hear from you. I have a Political Science-History Degree amongst others and just want the facts to be known about the flag we are speaking of. I can say that the flag that your state is flying is not "The Flag" of the Confederacy. To pick up where I left off, the story of Mattie Rice and her lifetime of work to restore honor to her father was a most receptive decoration of our time. Mattie Rice committed herself to her father's memory from when she was a little girl. She read his journals day after day and questioned many people who knew him after his death. Not only did she get her fathers memory restored, but she was able to get 9 other men who served for the Confederacy honored. Of those other 9 men, 8 were servants and 1 was a free man. They all were of African descent and were honored on behalf of the Federal Government as well as State and they're respective sponsored organizations. The Confederate Flag was flying along with the American Flag with Civil War inri-actors by which these 10 men were recognized and reintterred so that they may forever rest in peace. In my opinion, by giving the murderous rampage of some sick misunderstood kid all the power to get a politically charged issue about that flag in question, is insulting your entire State and America in general. I understand that South Carolina has voted on the issue many times, but with actual truth and facts about the flag is represented on a stage that not many people are blessed to have bestowed or thrust upon them, it should be an example of how politics should be waged without hesitation or misrepresentation. This is your chance Governor Haley, to put the issue to rest once and for all. It might also be a learning experience for others to see how a "Real" leader, handles delicate situations that can and will have an impact on your constituents, our entire Country, and the World at large. I am a Veteran of certain distinction that has endured so much in a lifetime, it is refreshing to be blessed with an education to make important or better informed decisions that may have sway on my life as well as others. All that is needed Ma'am, is to find the right words to say. The facts as well as your intentions are already there for you to put this issue to rest once and for all and to set the stage for a new "Revelation" in politics. The virtuous qualities of beauty and goodness should not be infected by "Convienience" or "Stereotypes" that plague our leaders today. I do believe that you, Governor Haley, will be representating politics that should be happening today, but what will be needed in the future. Take it for what it is worth, but this "media blitz" that you have endured and have shown great compassion in, has reached the eyes and ears of everyone in the world. It is a sign, so to speak, for you to take a good strong step forward for the betterment of American society. To stamp the issues out with strength and courage. It is a time when the wind of adversity blows strong, it is time to make a move that will surprisingly satisfy any and all sides of "Controversy". I just want you to know Ma'am, it is not only your responsibility to be a leader, but a voice of reason. Do not worry about the dissenting others that may wish to "Spin" your situation any other way. Tell things like they are, so that when the media gets a hold if it, they cannot misrepresent the voice that has been given to you. Although this issue may have already had a great influence on society, I do not believe it is over. I also wanted you to know my feelings on any other issue, more times that not, will want to be handled the same way. I have tried to contact other leaders of South Carolina during "The Fog" of this terrible tragedy and have had minimal success, but I have already experienced an embarrassing moment regarding the "Confederacy" in general. As you may well know, the issue of Abolitionism was rooted in the "Republican" brand. Democrats were caught placating the issue in the 19th Century as their own. I have always been in possession of information that what I am saying is true, and am currently researching the murderous political plots that may have kept the Civil War from happening at all. The issue of "Slavery" was based in politics, not any "North, South, Union, or Confederacy". For example, "Liberals" of the past were just "More Progressive" Conservatives where the "Liberal Movement" was rooted in. Democrats have also taken over that movement as one of their own. As "History" would have it, amongst few others, a man named Horace Greeley can be deemed as the person that "Coined" the term. He was also part of the "Coups" that got Lincoln elected to form the Republican Party, and also was the first to form the "Liberal Republican Party" and run for President himself. Horace Greeley was a great man in his own right, and was also credited by some to have said, "Go West, young man, and grow up with our Country".....or something like that.....lol.....Anyway, I could go on and on. I will be surprised to get any further responses, but if I do my faith will be somewhat restored in "Civilized Society" as I am currently victimized everyday of my life. I wish you well, "Gov'na".....lol.....and hope you will deal with anything that comes your way with the grace and hope that you and the people of South Carolina have shown thus far. It is my only hope to have had a positive influence on someone, anyone, and that my health or the public at large does not do me in before my calls for help are answered.....Thank you Ma'am, please respond..... Haley: Clearly, you did not read my original message. Your non-responsive, cowardly retort (non sequitur-filled prepared statement) was pure sell-out, knee-jerk, reverse-racism propaganda. You must have had a team of monkeys working on it for days. Only one community was affected by the shooting in Charleston. It was a local matter, nothing more. The black community needs to spend its time on self-examination and reflection on why white people feel the way they do towards black people. Could it be because blacks commit crimes such as rape, murder, and theft at much higher rates than other races? Could it be because the black culture embraces gangsters, pimps, and rappers as role models? What would their hero, Martin Luther King, say if he could see them now? That is what the nine families need to be focusing on, not the Confederate Flag. If the Confederate Flag has to go in the history books, then so does all visual reminders of slavery and the civil rights movement. If they are all linked, then collectively they must all either stay or go. It is unfair, unjust, and conspicuously prejudicial to arbitrarily select the flag for relegation to some dusty museum. That flag is not a relic of the past any more than anything else. The Confederate Flag is a proud, living symbol of Southern heritage and it must be revered as such. Yankees and foreigners that don't like the flag are free to catch a bus or plane out of South Carolina. In short, just get the hell out if you don't like it. How about reading this. See link below. https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Murders_of_Channon_Christian_and_Christopher_Newsom What governor hugged these families? This tragedy didn't even make the national news. Why not? This was the epitome of a hate crime. Violence is central to the black culture just listen to their rap music they glorify it. LLW

Thanks for contacting me. That flag has been on that pole all these years and nothing has happened til now. Takin that flag down will not change a thing. There will always be a Dylan Roof, there will always be a KKK, and there will always be a skinhead. Those idiots have made that flag into something it is not. Tha war was about state sovrienty not slavery. My family has 2000 acres here in Starr, SC, been in our family since the war.I wish you would come and see it. The war was about land and sovrienty not slavery. bad move on taking the flag down. Everyone bows down to the blacks and the US gov. They win again (blacks, us gov, kkk, dylan roofs) SC keeps letting people tell them what to do. There is a flag in my front yard it aint coming down. My wife feels the same way that I do. You can contact her at [REDACTED]@yahoo.com. You will not be recieving our votes or anyone else that votes to remove that flag

I appreciated your reply, but strongly disagree that hate mongers and people who destroy property should have a say in what we commemorate.

We are loosing far too much to them. Baltimore was just another great disgrace with these kinds of demonstrations. I was thankful we had more intelligent people here to deal with another misguided young man.

Dear Governor Haley.

Please forgive me for saying so but that is crap.

But with that said maybe you should be sure to get your resume together after you are out of office and sent it to former Governor David Beasley... he might have some ideas for what you can do with your spare time.

Governor Haley -

Your position on the Confederate flag issue is commendable. I hope your legislature does its job and gives you something to sign. I had also asked you about removing Article VI - Section 2 of the South Carolina Constitution. It requires that you believe in a superior being in order to hold public office in SC. I believe that's a violation of the First Amendment to the U.S. Constitution and not enforceable.

Thank you -

Keep it flying. What did the Confederate flag ever do to your ancestors and mine. Which flag flew over Wounded Knee? Which flag flew over every slave ship out of Rhode Island. which flag did Sherman destroy the South under, and which flag is a religious symbol: one is the St. Andrews Cross.

What you have done is dividing the races. I used to want to be the black man's friend, from my heart. Now I think he hates me for my past. So I distance myself. Ask any Southerner if he or she feels the same. not Scalawags as yourself.

Dear Governor Haley, Thank you for the nice reply from my email. My first wife (of 35 years) was born in Camden, SC. I met her while I was stationed at Shaw AFB in Sumter. Needless to say I have many friends and fond memories of my years in SC. That said, I understand your position in regards of the Confederate Flag and, I hope you understand mine. I am a Christian and try to live my life as I think my Lord would want me to. I have no ill will towards anyone and detest evil in any form. My simple request for the flag was not sarcastic, but to let you know there are many of us in the WHOLE country who respect our ancestors and will honor their memories. Therefore, if you do not plan on destroying the Confederate Flag that has been flown proudly over the capitol building I would be honored to fly it on my property on the flagpole beneath my American Flag. Thank you for your response and I can see why you are such a popular Governor. Dick [REDACTED]

No, Governor Haley, it is not the time to remove the Confederate Flag. This flag means a lot to many southerners and we are offended that you and others hold it so lightly. I would doubt that more than 25 blacks in this state even knew the flag was flying at the memorial until all the publicity. This flag is not responsible for the deaths of the people in Charleston and anyone with any common sense would know that.

You, Governor Haley, have let the people of this state down and I assure you that I will not vote for any person who votes to remove this flag.

Did you actually read my email that I sent. It was regarding the US Flag not being at the SCDMV in Jasper County, not the Confederate Flag. My great great grandfather fought under "that flag" not because he owned slaves, because he was protecting his land and his rights. I have another family member who stood on Willis's Millpond Dam in Elko, SC and defended herself against Yankee Soldiers. She told them if they blew up the dam (which was their plan) that they might as well kill her because she would starve to death without the mill and they left her and the dam alone. Why can't you leave the Confederate Flag alone? You don't hear a bunch of southerners crying and complaining to tear down Grants Tomb because it offends them because Grant allowed Sherman to burn the south to the ground, he also allowed Sherman's troops to rape women, steal all of their belonging, kill their livestock and burn their homes down. I am offended by the US flag because it brought slaves to America and the Confederate Flag gets all the blame. People need to be educated and informed, but people like you are not allowing that to happen because you are too busy trying to erase history. Please just leave it alone. Just because you choose to ignore the facts, doesn't change them. The Civil War happened, the good, the bad and the ugly.

Dear Mrs. [REDACTED]

Thank
 you for taking the time to contact us.

These have been very difficult times
 for South Carolina, but our hearts and minds remain fixed on
 the nine families and the communities shaken
 by this tragedy.

Their grace and strength set a powerful example
 for us all.

Even
in the midst of our grief, South Carolina set about the process of healing – not by talking about issues
that divide us – but by hugging our neighbors, holding vigils, honoring those we lost, and falling to our knees in prayer.

We came together as a state, as a unified
people, to remember those we lost and to begin this healing process.

We've
also come together in acknowledging that certain symbols and events of our past resonate differently among us.

For some, the Confederate flag represents a history of their
ancestry and heritage.

For others, the flag is a deeply painful
reminder of a brutally oppressive past.

Inspired
by
the victims' families and the re-opening of Emanuel
A.M.E. church, I felt compelled to make a statement about moving the flag from the Statehouse grounds.

This is a moment
in which we can say that the flag, while an integral part of our past, does not represent the future
of our great state, and that by removing a symbol that divides us, we can move forward as a state in harmony.

The time has come for us to set the flag among the other markers of our history so we can set our eyes on the great promise of a united South Carolina.

God bless.

My very best,

Nikki R.
Haley
