Governor Haley,

God has moved on our behalf in this regard. Change is happening in Myrtle Beach, but much change is required.

So appreciate who you are. (see below)

David

I appreciate your call and will forward this to Sinclairs web team. The company has a very clear policy on this.

Billy,

Thanks for your call yesterday.

In just the past few months, WPDE has run the following news items with me as central:

<http://www.carolinalive.com/news/story.aspx?id=1196999>

<http://www.carolinalive.com/news/story.aspx?id=1200592>

In the past few years, these stories also ran:

<http://www.carolinalive.com/news/story.aspx?id=681228#.VYqcOfIViko>

<http://www.carolinalive.com/news/story.aspx?id=673210#.VYqelViko>

Of all the news stories WPDE has run with me as the lead, somehow the just above is the one story that WPDE has search engine optimized on my personal name. Your own updates, however, within the article show this entire affair was a charade. One must click into the article to see that however. The headline in the search results is quite salacious.

At the bottom of the article, you state I was arrested and you link to this WPDE story,

<http://www.carolinalive.com/news/story.aspx?id=662901#.VYqcVfIVikp>

In this just above article, your news site states, POLICE SAY...: Please pull the police report. the police NEVER said such, as neither they nor I were ever at that location. Scott Pyle made those statements to the police. Those statements were proven to be factually untrue. He was caught lying about the entire incident and geo location proved I was never at the location. The city police dismissed the case and my record was expunged. WE HAVE REPORTED THIS TO YOU SEVERAL TIMES and yet that article and those lies stand. If you will also check the record, I believe you will find that Pyle's business was an MBACC business of the year that year. His good friends, Darrin Gore and Shep Guyton served in high level capacities with MBACC during this period. They also served with him on the board at Christian Academy at that time.

So, last week, when you asked the Myrtle Beach Black Chamber President to Google my name you knew exactly what he would find there. Yesterday, when you commented "we" are looking to do business with Wardell's private concern, the "WE" you were speaking of was MBACC. The fact that the lines are so blurred between being a news man, and an MBACC Board
