Thank you for joining us in Lexington, Kentucky, for the 70th Annual Meeting of the Southern Legislative Conference. During the Annual Meeting, legislators from across the South convened with policy experts to discuss, review and consider opportunities to bring prosperity and promise to states and communities in the region.

See the 2016 Summary Report for condensed overviews of speaker presentations provided at sessions of the SLC standing committees, as well as other substantive programs, such as the staff workshop, technical tours, SLC State Transformation in Action Recognition, Carter/Hellard and Longevity of Service awards, and more!

Want to review a presentation you saw or missed at the Annual Meeting? Visit the presentation page to see what was discussed.

The SLC Annual Meeting provides policymakers a forum for engaging regional and national policy experts on the issues that matter most to them and their constituents. By combining unparalleled substantive programming on pressing state policy issues and opportunities to share experiences with colleagues, the SLC Annual Meeting has emerged as the premier regional public policy gathering for state legislators, legislative staff and state government officials serving the South.
