Time for Haley to grow a backbone and have the despicable Confederate flag removed from grounds of the capital. That flag represents the traitors who tried to destroy the United States: traitors who formed another government and caused the bloodiest war in our history in order to preserve the horrific enslavement of human beings.

The Governor needs to be reminded that she's a woman of color -- and since the killer who shot the nine people in Charleston did his killing on the basis of skin color -- had she and her party been sitting in that prayer service, he would have identified them as being black and killed them on the spot.

South Carolinians who have any decency should demand that the Confederate flag be removed. It is offensive to anyone other than the dead enders who want to pretend that it's a "heritage" or "freedom of speech" issue when we know that it's their twisted way of clinging to the abomination that was slavery.

I have vacationed in SC in past years including Charleston and Hilton Head. My husband lived in Charleston when he was in the US Navy so we spent a lot of time in the state. We even contributed money to the city of Charleston when Hugo destroyed large sections of Charleston.

because we think that it is a beautiful city. But until the Confederate flag is removed from p display at the capital, we will not spend another dollar in the state.

It's time for the governor to have the courage to say "enough is enough" and take a stand on removing the flag.

The swastika is an ancient Asian symbol of good fortune and has been for over 12,000 years what matters now is that the Nazis rallied around that symbol and neo-Nazis still rally around today. It would be beyond foolish for me to paint a swastika on my house and say "But it is ancient Asian symbol of good fortune."

In the same manner, it doesn't matter what else the Confederate flag may stand for. What matters is that racist people rally around it today. It is beyond foolish to fly the Confederate flag at the state capitol and say "But it stands for Southern heritage".

Show some leadership. Take down that flag.

Flying the Confederate flag is tantamount to flying an ISIS flag, or a flag from apartheid South Africa. I have seen a swelling of support on social media to pressure corporations to boycott South Carolina until that racist symbol comes down. Have you no decency?

Dear Governor Haley,

I am writing as a concerned United States citizen regarding the fact that South Carolina still flies the Confederate flag. You need to take it down. For the vast majority of people in the United States, that represents the hatred of prejudice and violence associated with the KKK, skinheads and other racist groups, NOT "state's rights" as Confederate Flag supporters claim. It is 2015, the symbol is archaic, obsolete and divisive. It sheds a terrible light on South Carolina making it ignorant, redneck, racist and oppositional. Time to accept the Civil War is over, times have changed. It is time to move on and let go of the negative symbols of the past. Furthermore, speculate that just as American citizens threatened to boycott Indiana over their anti-gay law, people may choose to do the same to South Carolina. And they should! I, for one, will not be visiting Myrtle Beach (a favorite vacation destination for my family) until the Confederate flag is taken down and banned from being flown.

Sincerely,

Shirley [REDACTED]

Dear Governor Haley -

Yesterday I watched with sadness the news of the deaths of nine church members in Charleston. The act on the part of the shooter in this situation is despicable. As for your role in the healing process for Charleston and the rest of South Carolina, I cannot understand how you can fulfill your moral obligation and to the financial obligation you owe to your state. You must be aware of the backlash you will be experiencing in the media over this subject. I'm sure you are very aware of the recent situation in Indiana over gay rights. I'm a busy attorney here in Maryland, but I have time to look up top businesses in the State of South Carolina, and I intend to send each of them a letter asking them to contact your office to request the removal of the Confederate flag from their locations at your statehouse. A state in this modern environment cannot continue to fly this flag and expect there not to be a social and corporate backlash. And I will ask all of my friends on social media to do the same.

Thank you for your time,

Karen [REDACTED] Esq.

I am no one special. I have no political power or connections but, I am an American citizen. as an american, I believe the only course of action I have is to express my utter dismay and by your leader's refusal to lower the confederate flag. This outdated and racist symbol offen and MANY others regardless of color. It makes you look like ignorant intolerant insensible beings. Each tearful speech you make is tainted by your refusal to even acknowledge that th confederate flag has racist implications. SHAME ON YOU, Governor!

I feel so very powerless. What is wrong with you? How can you spit in the faces of those w suffered for generations at the hands of those who are supposed to protect and serve. How exactly are YOU protecting and serving the people of Soith Caolina? Are you really such a coward? This country was founded by brave and courageous men who were willing to DIE what they thought was right, and decent and fair. Yet you can't lower a flag as is custom acc this country to show our respect in times of mourning? You're words fall on deaf ears. Actio speak louder than words. Do the decent thing; the RIGHT thing and truly show that you res the innocent lives lost. All it takes is one person to ignite change. Do you have the strength : decency to be that person?

Dear Governor Nikki Haley of South Carolina, Please remove the flag of the Confederacy from any government or official property. We American's cannot accept the usage of the flag as a symbol that hangs in an official status above our heads. We as a country fought to remove the ambitions of slave owners. Today we continue to fight against human rights abuses. In your state this flag is no different than a word used to refer to a slave. It should on the other hand NOT be removed from museums, history books and other places; we can learn from the pains imposed on Americans by Americans. We should not force those who have a right to love that flag to remove it from their vehicles, homes, bodies, clothing, etc. Freedom of speech & expression was also fought for in the need of a revolution. A right using to present you this message. The government's role is to protect the people, not project them the pains of our dark past. So again, please remove the flag. -k

Governor Haley

I am writing to urge you to reconsider your response and position concerning the Confederate flag. The flag may be a symbol of pride for some white southerners, but as a white southerner and a native of the south I find this flag insulting, divisive and embarrassing.

I think of it as a symbol, not unlike the swastika, and I can't imagine you would support Any Merkel flying a swastika over government offices in Germany just because someone's granddaddy died in WWII fighting for Hitler.

The absurdity of your position must be obvious to you, but especially in the aftermath of the murder of the 9 Black church members in Charleston.

Please take this under consideration.

Sincerely

Lucile [REDACTED]

Re: TAKE DOWN THE CONFEDERATE FLAG FROM THE SOUTH CAROLINA CAP

Respect all South Carolinians and use your power and influence to ensure the confederate flag removed from the capitol grounds.

On Wednesday evening, a 21-year-old white South Carolina man murdered 9 black people at Mother Emanuel AME Church in Charleston, South Carolina. This was an act of violence reminiscent of the September 15, 1963 bombing of the 16th Street Baptist Church. For generations, the confederate flag has represented the terror and violence perpetrated on Black communities. Unfortunately, the confederate flag is still flying on the South Carolina Capitol Grounds today. It's time now for South Carolina to take down this terrible symbol of racial violence once and for all.

Thank you for the opportunity to bring these remarks to your attention.

Yours sincerely,

Robert E. [REDACTED]

The confederate flag symbolizes your state's continued support of slavery as it existed before defeat of the confederacy. While it defies common sense that it flies today in a nation that stands on equality and fairness to ALL of its citizens, in light of the tragedy in Charleston, it is clear it is an affront all but those who hold onto the racism it implies.

It is both shameful and embarrassing!

Take down that flag.

I am making an extended summer trip planned to include your state, however, after the racist terrorist event that occurred at the Mother Emanuel AME Church, I am eliminating your state from my itinerary altogether. Until the confederate flag is removed from official state grounds altogether, I will never step foot in or spend one red cent of my tourist dollars in South Carolina. Money that I had budgeted for my stay there will now be donated directly to the families of murdered victims of that white supremacist animal. I will also recommend a boycott of your state as I have done in Georgia due to its support of backward, antiquated, ignorant views and practices.

Take down that flag.

I'm an Indian American/South Asian and I am saddened and outraged by the shootings in Charleston. I understand that you have defended the display of the Confederate flag on the grounds of the statehouse in Columbia. Please take down the flag which is a symbol of racism ideology and actions targeting Black communities. As an Indian American/South Asian, I stand against racism and inequity. I hope you will too.

Dear Governor Haley,

Whatever else it may mean to people, the Confederate flag is a symbol of the days of slavery. Flying it is an incitement to the racists in your state. In light of the massacre of 9 African-Americans at the church, it is extremely disrespectful to be flying the Confederate flag at the church. Now would be a great time to announce it will never be flown again on government property. The United States of America, not the CSA.

Dear Governor Haley,

In the name of God and history, please initiate proceedings to remove the CSA/Stars and Bars as the symbol for South Carolina. It is an evil racist flag, and maintains the racist status quo Old South.

I am a Southerner, by birth and by choice. But the South I adhere to is the New South, not the racist South. So, please start a campaign to remove the CSA symbol as representing anything your state.

Thank you for reading this,

Dear Governor Haley:

Like many residents of the Charleston area I moved here recently from Seattle for a business that I'm sure your office had a hand in bringing to SC, and for that I thank you. As a 32 year voter I would like to urge you to do your part to take the Confederate flag off the state capitol grounds. This symbol and flag is absolutely an important piece of your local history, a history that is rich and that outsiders are not a part of. It must be treated as such, and be properly placed in a museum where it belongs. It has no business on state grounds, which we all pay for through taxes. Thank you for your time. Andrew [REDACTED]

Dear staffer, I didn't buy the governor's crying face with no tears. But I'll tell you what could me a believer. If the Governor walked out to the flagpole flying that embarrassing confeder flag, took it down on public television, and then never let the glaring monument to evil way tax payer supported place as long as you serve. I'm concerned that tomorrow you'll publicly and say something like it couldn't possibly have happened because of one flag. That it is sir to look at the situation in that light. However, to me that flag represents an atmosphere of a and intimidation, a time of greed and great inhumanity. To be sarcastic about it I think the confederate flag says to all who see it that "our nigras know their place, they wouldn't dare vulgar fuss like darkies in other states." Prove you will do better than Strom Thurmond.

I am a white, Republican, son of the South, 67 year old descendent of Confederate soldiers.

I am asking you, as our Governor, to bravely step out and call, next week, for the Confederate flag to be removed from our Statehouse grounds and all state buildings and assemblies.

No, I don't think the flag caused the Charleston massacre. But I do think the flag has been hijacked by racists and it has become a symbol of racial hatred.

Nothing would make me prouder as a SC Republican than for you, and other SC Republicans to join together next week and make a public call for it to be removed.

It is time for our state Government to furl it and put it away. It belongs in museums not on statehouse grounds.

Joe

S. Carolina shares a symbol of hate & racism with the flag of terrorists & traitors, confederate flag. That a government displays this hate symbol on government tax supported property is an abomination perpetrated by enablers & supporters of hatred, & racism. The public servants like yourself need to know that this makes you an unacceptable candidate for national office. People like you & L. Graham will not be electable nation wide until you stop supporting & sharing viewpoints with nazis & the klan. Governor Haley did not compare well with the families, friends & congregants of the nine hand gun victims who spoke of forgiveness & love. Please do not posture as if you are deeply touched by the deaths of the 9 when you refute & speak in direct opposition to their religion & to the feelings & beliefs of their loved ones. Stop playing politics with the dead victims of gun violence. Your actions speak for the racists, haters in direct opposition to the religious beliefs & feelings of the gun violence victims & those who loved & respected them. Shame on you for trying to use the murders of 9 people for your political gain. The only one who backs you are racist supporters of the KKK & nazis. You are alone with your confederate flag. The Republican party doesn't dare align themselves with you. Wave your racist flag. You show who you are.

Dear Governor Haley:

Take the Confederate flag down. Put it where it belongs. In a museum. I'm 72 and Johnny Y was a childhood hero. It no longer represents him or those that served under it. It represents it represents the KKK, it represents that all men are not created equal. It does not nor never represent the USA. I'm just one but I think I represent many. It's time to take the flag down. time for all to know that all 50 states believe in the basic principles of or Declaration of Independence, everyone is equal (all men).

Take it down now today do not let it divide us any longer.

The Honorable Nikki R. Haley:

I implore you to remove the confederate flag hanging in front of the state building. The confederate flag symbolizes racism and exemplifies a terrible moment in this country's history. While it is imperative to remember and teach the symbolic nature of this flag; It would set a precedent to other states, races and countries that South Carolina does not stand for images that support a climate of hate and segregation; this flag has a historical context and should be housed in a museum.

Please read THE NEW YORKER, David Remnick:

<http://www.newyorker.com/news/daily-comment/charleston-and-the-age-of-obama>

He writes & speaks more eloquently & succinctly on the subject of race than me or any other lovely thought by Mr. Langston Hughes.

'I Dream A World', Langston Hughes:

I dream a world where man
No other man will scorn,
Where love will bless the earth
And peace its paths adorn
I dream a world where all

Will know sweet freedom's way,
Where greed no longer saps the soul
Nor avarice blights our day.
A world I dream where black or white,
Whatever race you be,
Will share the bounties of the earth
And every man is free,
Where wretchedness will hang its head
And joy, like a pearl,
Attends the needs of all mankind-
Of such I dream, my world.'

Thank you.

I understand that the confederate flag continues to fly outside the statehouse of South Carolina. I want to say that I am opposed to this display, symbolic of a past riddled with the horrors of slavery and an attempt to divide our country...tens of thousands of Americans died. However, more immediately important to me is that at the very least, it should be lowered to half-mast in the horrific aftermath of this massacre at the black church. It is one thing to offer expected word condolences but please put courage and action behind those words and have the confederate flag lowered.

Thank you for your attention to this message.

Hate isn't in a piece of cloth. Hate comes from the hearts of men. We do not blame an object for the death of innocent people we blame the man who used that object to kill another human. It has nothing to do with my beloved flag. I am a student and every class is taught with culture sensitivity and diversity. Why is my culture and heritage under attack? Where is the sensitivity? Where is the culture pride? Why is it not allowed? Why is my race shamed over something I did not even do? I did not harm anyone, why am I punished? Many are unaware the history is written by the victors. The Civil War is no different. Slaves were brought and sold by blacks. The first slave owner in the US was black. The Confederate Flag does not stand for slavery, it stands for a group of states that had the bravery to fight the government and die for what they believed. Slavery did not enter the Civil War until two years after the war started. Why are they allowed to deface the monuments?! These men died to give you the right to speak in capital for the rescue of your southern state! I have voted for you each and every time. How you proceed will definitely vote for you again. Do not take down my beloved Confederate Flag and do not allow them to destroy South Carolina!

The confederate flag represents a hideous practice from our past to many, many people. I see question those who say it brings them pride; however, that is their own business. There are n wonderful parts of our history that could be honored that do not make so many feel so terrible can assure you that I will not step in South Carolina until that flag no longer flies on governr property. I go through South Carolina on the way to visit family and have visited Charleston multiple times. I promise that, from here on out, I will drive around. I also plan to suggest th all of my friends and relations.

Dear Governor,

The St. Andrew's Cross Confederate battle flag, however proud of it you and other residents your state may be, telegraphs race hatred historically and today much more strongly than an aspect of Southern history and heritage. I was born in North Georgia, grew up in South Lou and have known this since I was 6 years old, and knew that my schoolmates who liked that : were being raised with racist beliefs and hatred for black people. That symbolism cannot be ignored or controlled, and it acts as a beacon to the rest of the country and world that your s celebrates race hatred. Please make it stop for the good of your black residents and for the r enlightened residents, too.

The confederate flag needs to be removed. This flag is not only a racist symbol, but a symbol national divide. What we need more than ever is to be united in America.
