We still have to play with 118.3 a bit, but I think this speaks to the open items that I didn't cover in the earlier emails. Thanks.

Christian,

I have attached a revised document for your review. I went through my document that shows the provisos with fiscal year or date references and made notes on the ones that you had not addressed in your document. Please give me feedback on what you want me to do with those. The only outstanding proviso other than the ones you highlighted in red in your previous e-mail to me is the non-recurring revenue proviso which I will be working on this afternoon.
