Do you know if the pier parking lot will be open this weekend at hunting island? A park ranger told me that it opens on May 15th but wanted to confirm before driving there

Only a small portion. The majority of the pier has been closed for quite sometime now due to damage from a hurricane.

I park there to walk down the nature trail to the lagoon. Is that ok?

Yes. That parking lot should be open along with the Nature Center. You might want to call the park to confirm though due to the ever/changing state that we are in.
