

State of South Carolina

Governor's Proclamation

WHEREAS, as one of more than 100,000 people who auditioned across the country, Candice Glover of St. Helena Island, South Carolina, was chosen to be a contestant on the twelfth season of the popular Fox Network television show, American Idol; and

WHEREAS, discovering her passion for music at a young age, Candice gave her first performance at Oaks True Holiness Church on St. Helena Island when she was four years of age and has been singing ever since; and

WHEREAS, Candice's powerful voice has won praises from the American Idol judges and millions of viewers alike, earning her a spot as one of the Top 3 finalists; and

WHEREAS, the people of the Palmetto State are proud of Candice and wish her the best for continued success.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Nikki R. Haley, Governor of the Great State of South Carolina, do hereby proclaim May 4, 2013, as throughout the state and encourage all South Carolinians to join together to support and watch Candice Glover on American Idol and vote for her following her live performance.
