March 22, 2015, 1 PM

Dear Members and Friends,

The fallout from Prime Minister Benjamin Netanyahu's recent victory is still playing out--both in Israel and, interestingly enough, the United States, where President Obama appears to be licking his wounds over another political loss as he and his minions had supported Prime Minister Netanyahu's main rival in the Israeli election this past Tuesday.

RUBIO RIPS OBAMA ON ISRAEL POLICY

Sadly, the President appears to be a sore loser in defeat as it took him several days to call and congratulate the Prime Minister. But even more disturbing are signs that the President may be intent on reshaping US Policy towards Israel, our closest ally in the Middle East.

We strongly urge you to view Senator Marco Rubio's insightful and adroit response to the Obama Administration's dangerous foreign policy posturing--not only in regards to Israel, but to our allies throughout the world.

LYNCH CONFIRMATION NOT BUDGING AN INCH

Poor Eric Holder--stuck in his post as Attorney General until Senator Mitch McConnell schedules a vote on his Obama nominated replacement, Loretta Lynch.

McConnell has said he won't schedule a vote on the Lynch nomination until the Senate passes a Human Trafficking bill--currently being filibustered by Democrats. It's possible the confirmation vote will be pushed back until April.

CULTURAL CORNER

If you haven't yet seen the movie Cinderella, we strongly urge to do so--as it is fresh and beautifully rendered version of the classic children's story.

Robert Barron calls Cinderella "the most surprising Hollywood film of the year." Click on the Following link to read Mr. Barron's review.
