I agree.

Lee Ann, Can you meet on Monday to go over a draft of the program? Thanks, KV

They are not interested if they can't perform a piece. I think this will be the case with any group. They have a big group so I think its important to get them committed. Leaving out Clemson and USC gives us wiggle room at the moment for time.

That is great! I wonder if they would be willing to perform with other groups (as a joint choir) if timing is tight?

Spoke with chorus director at Dreher today and they will participate if they can do a song or two. They have about 80 members. I think this is great!

Walter Graham is the director and he is wonderful. I also asked him about directing the group sings and he is willing to do that as well.
