Happy Earth Day from SC State Parks! How are you commemorating or celebrating the day? Planting a tree? Have you decided to start more "green" habits like recycling or conserving energy? Tell us so that you may inspire others!

Laura E. Rosier Got a tabletop composter for my kitchen for my bday - am renewing my compost bin in the back yard!

Stevens Creek Marina we recycle all our cans, rely on a nice spring breeze to keep us cool in our efforts to conserve energy now that we can open the windows since the pollen has subsided, and are buying solar power lights for our docks to navigate boaters instead of traditional energy. Go Green and Happy Earth Day to you all!!

Nancy Eargle Hargrove Got a garden spot or flower bed that needs help? All winter we added the paper from our shredder, coffee grounds and filters ,egg shell, and even the dirt from my vac to our garden spot. Covered it with newspaper and topped with mulch. Garden growing like crazy!!! Recycle at home!!
