You can print that she signed it and attribute that to me or the governor's office. It's just not a direct quote.

Does that mean I can print that she has signed it, but not attribute it?

On background: yes, she has signed the bill.

Quote from Haley press secretary Chaney Adams, "Uber's expansion into our state is a win for innovation, the competitive business environment we have fought so hard to create, and it means our citizens will continue to have safe reliable transportation options."

Can you please send Gov. Haley's statement on Uber and confirm she signed it into law?

Thanks so much,

Liz
