

State of South Carolina

Governor's Proclamation

WHEREAS, smart energy choices support our economy and increase energy independence; and

WHEREAS, the support of clean energy can help protect valuable natural resources and improve air quality in the Palmetto State; and

WHEREAS, increased energy efficiency in public and private facilities results in financial savings for citizens and taxpayers; and

WHEREAS, South Carolina is leading by example by mandating that public agencies, school districts, and colleges and universities reduce their energy consumption a total of 20 percent by the year 2020, as compared to year 2000 levels of usage.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Nikki R. Haley, Governor of the great State of South Carolina, do hereby proclaim October 2015 as throughout the state and encourage all South Carolinians to take action to use energy more efficiently.
