Questions and Discussions From Caregivers

Q: Should I bother to help my neighbor who is a hoarder?

I am apparently her only friend. She has no contact with relatives so I am the person she calls.

Q: My mother-in-law is in memory care facility and is a fall risk, but refuses to ask for help and has fallen at least twice.

She is wheelchair bound, but insists she can't wait for help to go to bathroom at night, even though she wears Depends.

Q: What should you do when your Mother "thinks" she runs the house and is in love with your spouse.

She is very messy and doesn't clean up after herself but folds my husband's clothes religiously.

Q: For someone with no family, what is the best way of ensuring my security if I become incapacitated?

I have gotten different advice from my CPA and an attorney who specializes in wills.
