Nikki Haley on WBTW (CBS) - Myrtle Beach, SC

03/13/2015 08:27:55

CBS This Morning (News)

... the state board of education voted unanimously to replace the common core standards with state-developed guidelines. we asked governor nikki haley what she thought about the changes. " we very much wanted to get rid of common core. we wanted to roll it back. we pushed for that legislation and the legislature signed and we passed it you know now it is up to the department of education to come up with south carolina standards." south carolina is the second state to back away from common ...
