You've been invited to this, right? FEMA will not attend public meetings without someone from the state also attending. Thanks, hv

Subject: townhall in Columbia

Nury,

Thank you for your consistent guidance as we work together to help the residents of South Carolina. While Sen. Graham was out in the neighborhoods yesterday, he kept getting questions about assistance. In an effort to help folks get answers to their questions, our office is going to host a townhall in Columbia. We would like for FEMA to be one of the presenters at this event. Other presenters will be SBA, SC Department of Insurance, SC Department of Employment and Workforce and the SC Emergency Management Division. Because of the anticipated turnout, we will not open the floor for questions. We would ask that you provide some representatives to assist individuals with any questions that might have.

We have also worked with Mayor Benjamin on this event. He will be working with the bus system to provide transportation for those residents that have lost vehicles.

We are wanting to get a press release out on this ASAP. We will wait until we have confirmed attendance from

you. Please call me if you have any questions. thanks
