Subject: Governor Haley's reaction to DOE decision

Hi, Chaney,

Has Governor Haley issues a statement reacting to DOE's recent record of decision to eventually ship 6 metric tons of plutonium stored at the Savannah River Site to the Waste Isolation Pilot Plant in New Mexico for disposal?

Is she encouraged by this step?

Or does she think this does not go far enough to ease any state concerns about the storage of plutonium in the state?

I wanted to include any comments by Governor Haley in a story I am doing on the ROD for Nuclear Fuel.

Thank you.
Elaine Hiruo
