Looks good to me. I usually put a semicolon at the end of the last Whereas clause, but you may not.

Hello Linda and Barbara,

Tomorrow is 30 days following the Governor's Order to suspend both Hours of Service and Size/Weight requirements.

Based on industry needs, our office has drafted another order to do the following:

- (1) Extend the waiver for Hours of Service for an additional 30 days – Beginning on October 31st and expiring on November 30, 2015; and
- (2) Extend the waiver for Size/Weight for the full 120 days – Beginning on October 2nd and expiring on January 30, 2016.

Please review for any errors or mistakes. We would like the Governor review the order this afternoon.

Thank you,

Rebecca
