Subject: Save the date: first annual CWRC best practice symposium October 16 in Atlanta!

Hi, all --

In response to requests from participating states, ACT Community & Economic Development is holding a best practice symposium for states and communities involved with the ACT Certified Work Ready Communities initiative. As the leaders in our CWRC participating states I wanted to go ahead and send you a "save the date" -- and feel free to share this with any community leaders in your respective states who may wish to attend. We'll send more details regarding venue and agenda as fall approaches, but for now please mark your calendars:

What: CWRC Best Practice Symposium
Who: Participants in the ACT CWRC initiative
Host: ACT-Community and Economic Development
Where: Atlanta, GA
Venue: TBD
Date: Wednesday, October 16 from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m.
Cost: Estimated at $50 per person; includes lunch

Stay tuned for more details, but feel free to contact me if you have any questions in the meantime.

Thanks,
Chris
