good morning Chaney,
Anderson is still in Charleston anchoring tonight at 8pm. Could we set up an interview with the governor at any point today or tonight?
Many thanks,
Jen

Good morning, Chaney.
Anderson is making his way to Charleston to anchor our show from there tonight.
Could the governor join Anderson today for an interview?
Our show airs at 8pm ET, and I would be happy to set up all logistics to make this as convenient as possible. we could do the interview live or pretape it at an earlier time if needed.
Many thanks for your consideration during this busy and very difficult time.
Sincerely,
Jen
