Re: Jasena Pearsey vs. Tyrone Beaver

State of Florida Case No.: 03-5247-DR
South Carolina Case No.: 07-DR-20-0211

Dear Judge Sprott:

A hearing was held before you on June 21, 2016 in the above-referenced matter. At the hearing I was advised that you abated enforcement measures for a total of three (3) months which would be until October, 2016. You ordered Mr. Beaver to pay $500.00 by 5 p.m. which he did. As of today's date, I have not received a child support payment. As you abated enforcement measures, I do not believe you advised Mr. Beaver to stop making his monthly ordered support payments.

My case was being handled by DSS Child Support of South Carolina and State of Florida Department of Revenue Child Support of Fort Myers, Florida. I have not been fully advised as to the status of my case and continually call South Carolina to get the status of my case. I was advised by Patricia Reed to cease contacting her office and contact State of Florida which obtain their information from South Carolina. These two (2) states do not communicate fully as South Carolina had an incorrect address for me, e.g. from over 10 years ago. They stated that they have sent me information, but I have yet to receive anything on my case. I never receive updates on my case from Florida unless I contact the Governor's office.

The mishandling of my case is getting very frustrating. My eldest daughter is requiring medical attention and attending therapy sessions now. The thought of not seeing her father since she was three (3) years old is taking a toll on her. She is in high school now and wanting to attend dances, but I cannot afford to pay for things as her father is not contributing. I am striving my hardest as a single mother, but it is both parents responsibility to take care of the child. Mr. Beaver is steadily having children and not handling his responsibilities.

Re: Jasena Pearsey vs. Tyrone Beaver

Mr. Beaver requested a Genetic Paternity Test which I had agreed to have both girls take. I reached out to him on numerous occasions set it up and he just had to pay for it. I was advised by the testing company that he never contacted them to set it up. This was a delay tactic to stall the enforcement proceeding.

I have enclosed a Rule to Show Cause with a notarized supporting Affidavit pursuant to S.C. Family Court Rule 14(c). I respectfully request that Your Honor enter the Rule to Show Cause which I will have personally served upon Mr. Beaver. As this is an evidentiary hearing and requires personal appearance, I plan to try my hardest to make arrangement to attend the hearing personally.

Respectfully Submitted,
