South Carolina State Parks

at 14:34:25 on 9/17/2018 UTC · 🌐

Hampton Plantation, Myrtle Beach, Huntington Beach, Cheraw, H. Cooper Black and Little Pee Dee state parks remain closed due to effects from Hurricane Florence. All other SC State Parks are OPEN.

Our in-house call center is closed to incoming calls. Our reservation specialists will be contacting customers with reservations that were impacted by Hurricane Florence this week for refunds or transfers. Please check our website at www.SouthCarolinaParks.com and click on Hurricane Florence for updates and more information. Thank you for your patience and understanding during this time.

South Carolina Parks | South Carolina Parks Official Site

With more than 80,000 acres of protected lands stretching from the Blue Ridge Mountains to the sand dunes of the Atlantic Ocean, South Carolina state parks protect some of the most inviting natural, cultural and recreational destinations in the country.
