Ok.

Coordinate with Brian on when she'll get there, what she can expect and to make sure the first gentleman knows about it.

Hi Chaney,

I am writing a story about a man from my circulation area, Dale Cullem, and his prize-winning Christmas tree. I wanted to accompany him on Monday at the Governor's mansion for the tree's setup. Dale mentioned that he would clear my tagging along with the governor's office. But I wanted to confirm with you to be sure.

Is this all OK?

Thanks,
Sarita
