upstateblackmons Is that Placid or upper reservoir? Looks more natural than Placid.

danamariamurphy @scstateparks Thanks for sharing the beautiful view!!! What do y'all rate that 3 mile hike? My Sole Sista and I would love to hike to that exact spot if we can get a reservation after you posted this lol .. I love our State Parks.. I used to be a Winter host for 6 months for a few years at Kings Mountain State Park in NC. And I live in a tent year round now just over 5 years now. I Love the connection to Good Ole Mother Nature. Thanks for keeping up our parks danamariamurphy @lindseyrayl have you been before? If so. What's the hike up like? My BFF had a stroke but it didn't paralyze her but is not able to work because her vision and comprehension has been affected.. She's been so depressed. I got her up to Grayson Highlands in Va to Car camp and we hiked about 16 miles or so the total trip. If you like horses. You'd love it! Hope y'all have a blast on y'all's trip!!! Happy trails and be safe!

danamariamurphy @lindseyrayl Not sure where your from but if your not far it's a most do.. And something else me and my BFF love to do is ride bikes down the Virginia Creeper trail. So fun and beautiful views that you can stop at. There's even the Famous Creeper trail Cafe and they are famous for their Chocolate cake to the point they sale out lol.
