RE: SCWCC JUDICIAL DEPARTMENT MEMORANDUM FORM 32

ARMANDO DESPAIGNE ZULVETA vs/ TC UNLIMITED Inc.

WCC File No.:1416780 DOI: 11/11/2014 WJC7B FILE No: 0124.00065

CARRIER: STATE AUTO INSURANCE COMPANY-CLAIM No: 452483

NOTICE

As an effort of abundant of caution Claimant Zulveta is making aware that I received a Memorandum FORM 32 from this Judicial Department in which indicates that the case in reference above will be set when appropriate fee of $25.00 has been paid.

In addition, neither the Memorandum and/or Form 32's waiver rejection have signature date. Not even the signature in blue has it. Therefore, Claimant Zulveta has no idea when the Memorandum was issued. This is in consistency pretty much with Chairman Beck's and Commissioner Campbell's unlawful activities.

In addition, neither South Carolina Workers Compensation Commission's Chairman T. Scott Beck nor Commissioner Michael Campbell, III, should have made any decision regarding case mentioned above. There is clear indication of not only their presiding hearings is conducted with bias, prejudice, capricious and unwarranted order-decisions, bribery, lack of judgment, etc. but also, they were aware that Claimant Zulveta disqualified both of them from the case and they still issuing, imposing illegal decisions upon my case.

Therefore, it is a time that Chairman-Vice Chair T. Scott Beck and Commissioner Michael Campbell, III to step down for their position of use, misuse, and abuse of power and authority implemented over South Carolina's injured workers.

On this day April 01, 2016

Respectfully Submitted;
