

Gov. Haley,

I send this for you to take a look at it.
I ask one final time for you to contact SCDC.
And advise them, that they are holding me [William D. Allen Sr.] unlawfully and they need to release me out of this prison.

Take this as NO threat but as a piece of good solid advice. If someone don't right this wrong, then at some point it's not go end good. So I am asking you to stop turning a blind eye to this most serious issue and help me get it straight.

My mother is 89 years old and in extremely bad health and I need to go home as soon as possible to see about her and here I sit being held unlawfully and SCDC staff all turning a blind eye to the truth. That I have brought to all of their attention.

You want me to say please, then I am saying please order or advise SCDC. to release me.

Please don't let my request to you fall on deaf ears and you continue to turn a blind eye to this wrong.

I hope and pray this don't have to end in a life or death situation. But if someone of authority from SCDC.

Headquarters don't come see me face to face and resolve this issue, it's go be a problem and I will leave it at that.

I do thank you in advance for your time and possible help.

Sincerely,

William D. Allen Sr.

Dear Sir,

I ask that you please take the time to look at this worthless peace of paper Marked Exhibit one. I am sure you being an attorney, you would know this is no way a valid legal document shown as Exhibit One, this is not a sentencing sheet or commitment order.

This paper Marked Exhibit One does not have a case number on it, this paper does not reflect a clerk of court seal or stamp on it, It also used the word should; That is at best a suggestion.

This paper is also dated 7-14-91 that is a Sunday, that alone makes it NULL and VOID. There is no court of law to be conducted on Sunday and no legal document to be signed and dated on Sunday in the United States of America. I am sure you being an attorney you would have knowledge of that law.

Dept. of Corrections does not have a legal valid document or commitment order signed by no judge, [That states for William D. Allen to be committed to the State Dept. of Corrections.] I have verified this through the Clerk of Court, in Orangeburg County. The clerk's record is void of a commitment order signed by a judge, [That is a fact] Dept. of Corrections record is also void of a commitment order signed by a judge for me to be inprison.

So i ask that you get involved and be honest and respect the law. I ask that you advise the Director of SCDC, that I am being held unlawfully. That he needs to get an order from a judge or do whatever it takes to release me ASAP. My release would relieve SCDC from this continued intentional deliberate willfulness intent to violate my Civil Rights, state law and Policy OP.21.09 Ect. This policy is very clear and without doubt being violated by the Dept. of Corrections to continue to hold me unlawfully.

I am at this time only looking for some release papers, but that will change if my release don't come in the very near future.

I do thank you in advance for your time and consideration into this most serious matter. You know where to find me if needed.

Sincerely,
/s/
William D. Allen
