Katherine,

While I try to leave you alone, it occurred to me that this is a (hopefully minor) issue I should contact you on. As you know the Hilton Head Island Town Council puts in over $600,000 each year for some advertising slots to assist the Heritage Classic Foundation make all the numbers work. We don't ask for a lot in return. But I have gotten feedback from several of my Council members that they feel that they should be invited to the reception hosted by the Governor during Tournament Week.

I spoke to Steve Wilmot at the Foundation and he told me that the Governor's Office pays for that reception and develops the invitation list and the Foundation has very little to do with that. So I am writing in you hopes that if the Governor again hosts a reception during Tournament Week that the full Town Council and their spouses will be invited. If you need to leave someone off the list; leave me off!

Thanks!
