Another great park to view fall foliage is Jones Gap. Its a park with a different perspective of the fall leaves! Learn more about the park at: <http://www.southcarolinaparks.com/park-finder/state-park/962.aspx>

Jones Gap State Park along the Middle Saluda River

Tracey Duckett Where is a cheap place to go to.

South Carolina State Parks All of our parks are reasonably priced, and quite economical. Of course, it all depends if you interested in a cabin, camping or simply a day visit. Visit our park website at www.southcarolinaparks.com for pricing information on specific parks or contact the park directly.

Tammy Smith Fink We're avid hikers and Jones Gap St. Park is the best of all the Parks we've hiked!!! Been there many times and loved every trail. Take your camelback though, some of the hikes are long ones, and you'll need more than just a bottle of water to drink.
