Governor's Proclamation

- WHEREAS, established to increase school readiness, Head Start and Early Head Start are comprehensive child development programs that serve young children to the age of five from low-income families; and
- WHEREAS, Head Start programs provide a wide range of services in the areas of early childhood development, education, nutrition, parent involvement, and medical, dental, and mental health in order to address individual needs; and
- WHEREAS, Head Start has developed its services to be appropriate and responsive to the developmental, ethnic, cultural, and linguistic heritage and experience of each child and family; and
- WHEREAS, in the Palmetto State, more than 13,460 children are receiving services from Regular, Early, Migrant, and Native American Head Start programs; and
- WHEREAS, Head Start has a 49 year history of delivering quality services that contribute to the healthy development of vulnerable children across our state and nation.
- NOW, THEREFORE, I, Nikki R. Haley, Governor of the Great State of South Carolina, do hereby proclaim October 2014 as

HEAD START AWARENESS MONTH

and October 23, 2014, as

HEAD START AWARENESS DAY

throughout the state and encourage all South Carolinians to recognize the positive contributions of this quality program that provides young children with a real head start in life.
