Background on SC Public Charter School District:

South Carolina Public Charter School District represents an expansion of public school choice in the state. The district has over 1,400 students in 24 schools and ranks in the top half of all districts in the state with regard to size. It is the mission of the SCPCSD to assist public charter schools and insure they are surviving and flourishing. The establishment of a Public Charter School District has positioned South Carolina to be a national leader in the charter school movement.
