As of June 19, 2017 please be advised that the applicant, Michael Rawson, has withdrawn his request for special exception and the proposed host home use of the barn/buildings in the rear of the property located at 2933 Concord Road, Anderson, SC. The barn/building will be used/converted for the purpose of storage only and no sleeping quarters will be allowed.

However, under current law and codes, the applicant is able to utilize his existing residence to house students that visit and he has legal guardianship of. In addition, the applicant will conform to the current Building & Codes Department requirements and an inspection for compliance will be required.

Since Mr. Rawson is using his existing residence and not the outside buildings for occupancy, special exceptions will not be needed. Therefore, no meeting will be required or scheduled for Thursday, July 13, 2017. If you have any questions or concerns, please direct them to the proper department: Building & Codes Manager-Barry Holcombe (864) 260-4158; Development Standards Manager-Alesia Hunter (864) 260-4719 or DHEC Director Chris McCluskey (864) 260-5585.
