

From: arich=justiceinaging.org@mail.salsalabs.net <arich=justiceinaging.org@mail.salsalabs.net>
To: Kester, Tonykester@aging.sc.gov
Date: 11/21/2015 10:01:33 AM
Subject: Mr. Barrett got his day in court

Dear ToNew York,

As a member of the Justice in Aging network, you probably know that every year we produce dozens of publications and webinars for advocates, and we also advocate in Congress and at the agency level to ensure the system that provides benefits to low-income older adults works. You also know how often it doesn't.

That's why I'm writing. To remind you of the other component of our work at Justice in Aging—litigation, and to ask you to become a donor to Justice in Aging with a gift of $10, $25, or $50 to help fund our litigation efforts.

Litigation is what gives our advocacy teeth. When our efforts to work with agencies fail, they know we'll turn to the courts to enforce the rights of older adults.

Find out how Mr. Barrett got his day in court by watching the video below and then make a gift of $10, $25, or $50.

Click on the image to learn about Mr. Barrett

~~As the Director of Litigation for Justice in Aging, I know there's power in the~~ courts. And I believe so strongly in the efficacy of the high-impact class action lawsuits we file with partners, that I, along with other Justice in Aging staff, have contributed $5,000 to match your gift dollar-for-dollar up to our goal of $5,000, so your gift will count for twice as much.

Make your donation a monthly donation, and we'll send you a FREE Justice in Aging canvas tote bag.

Thanks for all you do for Justice,

Anna Rich,
Litigation Director

Connect with Us

Justice In Aging
1444 Eye St., NW Suite 1100
Washington, DC 20005

1330 Broadway, Suite 525
Oakland, CA 94612

3660 Wilshire Boulevard, Suite 718
Los Angeles, CA 90010

UNSUBSCRIBE