South Carolina State Parks

at 17:23:37 on 5/18/2010 UTC

Are parks quiet places? Generally, but the peace was disturbed last night at Givhans Ferry State Park by these Squirrel Treefrogs. They are explosive breeders after thunderstorms -- AND have quite a lot to say about it!

Squirrel Treefrogs at Givhans Ferry

South Carolina State Parks Listen at the chorus....you'll finally get to see this fellow!
