SC Literacy Champions Awards Program

The SC Education Oversight Committee created the South Carolina Literacy Champions Awards Program to recognize successful service-learning programs within postsecondary institutions focused on building reading skills among SC public school students in grades K-12.

This website is for individuals interested in applying for the 2009-10 award or who are interested in the program.

The annual award recognizes up to three service learning programs within SC postsecondary institutions that have had a significant impact on increasing literacy among K-12 public school students. Each award will be acknowledged with:

> A $10,000 grant to be used for expanding the awarded program, and > Recognition at a meeting of the EOC

University of SC community partnership receives SC Literacy Champion Award

To apply and find out more about the Program please download the forms below:

SC Literacy Champions 2010 Application (DEADLINE: September 17, 2010)
SC Literacy Champions Brochure
EOC announces awards program to recognize service learning programs focused on literacy (April 26, 2010)

(l-r) Bill Rogers, Executive Director, SC Press Association; Jo Anne Anderson, Executive Director, SC Education Oversight Committee; and Mike Brennan, President, BB&T present Jason Bird of the University of SC's WRAP program with the 2009 SC Literacy Champions Award on November 30 at Irmo Middle School.

Grant Funding support provided by Central Carolina Community Foundation:

Resource Video Library:

Integrating Age-appropriate Academic Standards into Your Program
Working with Data and Evaluating Your Program

Service Learning Resources:

Campus Compact:
http://www.compact.org/resources/

Learn and Serve American's National Service Learning Clearinghouse:
http://www.servicelearning.org
National Youth Leadership Council:
http://www.nylc.org
National Service- Learning Partnership:
http://www.service-learningpartnership.org
Corporation for National and Community Service:
http://www.nationalserviceresources.org/