

From: Kathy Ropp <kathy.ropp@myhorrynews.com>
To: Adams, ChaneyChaneyAdams@gov.sc.gov
Date: 5/3/2016 9:46:42 AM
Subject: Agricultural bill

I was at a meeting recently where Hugh Weathers was speaking. He said the legislature overwhelmingly passed a bill giving farmers some relief from flooding losses. He said he expects the Governor to veto the bill. Where does this bill stand now? Has the Governor had an opportunity to deal with it yet? Is he right that she plans to veto it? If so, what is her reason?

Thanks for your help,

Kathy Ropp

Editor

Horry Independent newspaper

Conway, SC

(843) 488-7241

kathy.ropp@myhorrynews.com