Subject: President Obama Delivers State of the Union Tonight at 9 P.M. ET

Dear Colleague:

Remember to tune in tonight at 9 P.M. ET to watch President Obama deliver his State of the Union address.

As in past years, the very best place to watch the address is WhiteHouse.gov/SOTU. Here, the viewing experience is stocked with interactive features to help make the President's proposals concrete for you, and shareable charts and stats that help supplement and expand on the points you'll hear him make.

You can also access the site to watch the President reflect on the country's progress over the past 6 years and get a sneak peak of some of the President's priorities over the next 2 years. As the President says, making sure every American shares in the growing economy and has the tools to succeed is a key challenge for the future.

We hope you find this information helpful and please feel free to share it with your colleagues and audiences.

Sincerely,

Carolyn W. Colvin
Acting Commissioner
