Danny -

That will be fine. We'll be around next week. Philip did most of that report so even if I am not around, he can talk about it better than I could.

I had sent this e-mail to Mark Plowden before the transition and thought that I should send it to you too in case it didn't get handed over to you.

The Office of Senate Oversight is following up on the implementation of recommendations made in the reports for the agencies we reviewed in 2015. I have attached a letter that describes the process. Please contact me if you have any questions. Thank you for your help!
