Hello Tony,

Join the increasing number of health plans and accountable care organizations working together to address the challenges, risks, and rewards of offering advance care planning and palliative care support to their members at the Advanced Care Planning and Palliative Care Leadership Summit in Orlando, Florida, January 27-28, 2016. We'll explore all aspects of benefit design and care delivery that stands to offer true person-centered care by first finding out what the person at the center wants and then delivering the care they need.

Hurry now as this event fills up VERY FAST!!

Registration Details

I am personally handling the registrations for this event and have attached a registration form for your convenience that you can simply fill out and email/fax back to me if you're interested. You can also call me at 704-341-2647, I am here and happy to answer any questions. I have group discounts available for those that qualify (discounts range from 10%-20% depending on the group size). To help us better serve you, please mention your priority code and/or how you heard about us when registering with me.

Venue Info

Due to the popularity of this event, the Wyndham Orlando Resort International Drive is in a SOLD OUT situation as is our overflow at the Hawthorne Suites. We are currently in the process of securing yet another overflow hotel. Just to be safe we recommend you book a reservation at one of the hotels below which is within one mile of the hotel. If you book on hotels.com you can cancel without a penalty and book into the overflow.
