

The Original Six Foundation to hold ribbon cutting for Allendale County Community Sign

COLUMBIA, S.C. – Governor Nikki Haley, The Original Six Foundation’s Board of Directors, and representatives from Verizon will hold a ribbon cutting for the Allendale Community Sign at 601 Railroad Avenue, Allendale, South Carolina on Friday, August 30, at 11:00 AM.

The Original Six Foundation met with Allendale leaders in 2012 to identify challenges and solutions to issues facing the county. To help with some of the communication challenges in the county, the foundation raised private funds to install a community digital billboard. The sign will be used as a community message board, providing public service information to the citizens of Allendale County.

To have your message considered for the sign please contact Christ Central at 803-708-6803.

WHO: The Original Six Foundation Board of Directors and Verizon

WHAT: Ribbon Cutting for Allendale Community Sign

WHEN: Friday, August 30, 2013, 11:00 AM

WHERE: 601 Railroad Avenue, Allendale, SC

NOTE: Founded by South Carolina Governor Nikki Haley, The Original Six Foundation unites private support to solve public challenges and does not use any government funding. The foundation’s mission is to serve as a catalyst for change in South Carolina by uniting public, private and civic leaders and resources to identify and address the challenging issues facing the state’s communities with the purpose of leaving the communities feeling empowered and positively impacted.
