Sel Hemingway, Georgetown County Administrator, wanted you to know the following:

He is very supportive of you and held a press conference today saying so. He said you are – and have always been – a great ally, and his county team and you, your office, and the state are not at odds, no matter what the press has tried to say. You have stood with them through ice storms, fires, and economic development projects.

He wanted you to know that he was here for anything you need. He also invited you to a tailgate in the Georgetown EOC tomorrow for the Carolina-LSU and Clemson-GA Tech games.
