

State of South Carolina
Proclamation
by
Governor Jim Hodges

WHEREAS, throughout her life, Alice Logan Brown has had a significant impact on her community, touching the lives of countless individuals through her warmth and compassion; and

WHEREAS, as witness to many of the profound changes that have occurred during the past century, Alice Logan Brown's unique perspective and experiences are of untold value and each of us can greatly benefit from her shared knowledge; and

WHEREAS, April 2, 2001, marks a unique time for Alice Logan Brown to reflect on the many blessings she has given and received throughout her life as she celebrates her 105th birthday; and

WHEREAS, as friends and family gather at St. Peter African Methodist Episcopal Church to celebrate this special occasion, all South Carolinians join me in wishing Alice Logan Brown and her loved ones the continued gifts of peace and joy in the coming year.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Jim Hodges, Governor of the Great State of South Carolina, do hereby proclaim April 2, 2001, as throughout the state and encourage all South Carolinians to honor Alice Logan Brown on this special day.

ALICE LOGAN BROWN DAY

Jim Hodges

Jim Hodges
Governor
State of South Carolina