

From: Soura, Christian
To: Patel, Swati <SwatiPatel@gov.sc.gov>
Baker, Josh <JoshBaker@gov.sc.gov>
Date: 5/1/2013 10:33:46 AM
Subject: RE: Budget

---

That's fairly unlikely...they've copied-and-pasted the schedule that the Senate released on March 19th as its then-current estimates.

The Senate floor debate (assuming it even starts on the 14th, which is hardly a foregone conclusion) could easily take longer than a week. And for what it's worth, I've heard from House staffers that they expect to return for vetoes on June 18th.

CLS

Christian L. Soura
Deputy Chief of Staff

(803) 543-0792
ChristianSoura@gov.sc.gov

---

From: Patel, Swati
Sent: Wednesday, May 01, 2013 10:26 AM
To: Soura, Christian; Baker, Josh
Subject: Budget

I just saw this in the latest scheduling report from Capitol Affiliates. Do you agree with this schedule?

UPCOMING DATES OF INTEREST

APRIL 30 TH - MAY 2 ND	Full Finance Committee Deliberations
MAY 7 TH – 9 TH	Final Finance Committee Deliberations and Printing of H.3710 and H.3711
	House Furlough
MAY 14 TH – 16 TH	Senate Floor Budget Debate
MAY 21 ST – 23 RD	Budget Conference Committee
MAY 28 TH – 30 TH	Conference Report Delivered to Governor
JUNE 4 TH – 6 TH	Vetoes