Danny,

I read the presentation you sent from Jennifer Land of Monroe's Mighty Mission.

I asked Jennifer Van Cleave of the LGOA, who coordinates our senior pet food program to brief me on the LGOA's involvement.

The LGOA uses Monroe's Mighty Mission as a resource to relocate pets when a senior is unable to care for the pet due to health, moving, etc. This non-profit fosters pets and uses no kill shelters to ensure humane adoptions.

Ms. Land asked the LGOA to share data from our Pet program when preparing the presentation. According to Ms. Van Cleave the LGOA's only relationship is to utilize a service for pet adoptions and if Monroe's Mighty Mission is advocating any of the models presented in the presentation the LGOA has not weighed in with support.

Please feel free to call me or Jennifer Van Cleave at 734-9933 if you have any questions.
