A state park salute to two of our very finest - Ranger Ann Wilson & Ranger Mike Walker! This dynamic duo was recently recognized by the South Carolina Department of Natural Resources Marine Turtle Conservation Program, with an Environmental Outreach Award for the 2018 turtle season. Both of these rangers are great ambassadors for sea turtle projects in their parks and spread conservation messages to hundreds of visitors and tourists along our coast each year. Congratulations Mike & Ann! We're proud to be on your team!

Ann W-Fitz Wonderful! Thank you!

Steve Anderson Remember Ranger Mike from his time at Hunting Island, our daughters are in their 30's now and still talk about the time spent with him. Congratulations Ranger Mike on this award but more importantly on the impressions you left on so many minds of the little ones that spent time with you.
