

MERRY CHRISTMAS AND HAPPY NEW YEAR!

2014 provided us with many wonderful travel opportunities and we wanted to share some of the most special photos with you.

Front left: Stained glass window inside The Cathedral of the Most Holy Trinity, Hamilton, Bermuda, where we attended Good Friday service.

Front right: Statue inside the Chapel of Saint Peter and Saint Paul, originally built in the 12th century, Mottistone, the Isle of Wight, England, where we visited in March.

Front lower: Stained glass window inside Canterbury Cathedral in Canterbury, Kent, which is one of the oldest and most famous Christian structures in England, founded in the year 597.

The photo of the two of us on the back in front of a home is Mottistone Manor, Allison's ancestors' home owned by the Chekes (now known as "Cheek") from approximately 1300 until 1621 on the Isle of Wight. The stone is known as "Long Stone" and dates back more than 6,000 years.

Other photos on the back are of the Chapel of Saint Peter and Saint Paul and Cheke Chapel (added by the Chekes in the 1500s, across from Mottistone). You'll also see photos from Allison's 50th birthday at Seabrook Island, our 10th wedding anniversary at Sea Island as well as one photo in front of the Golden Gate Bridge in San Francisco.

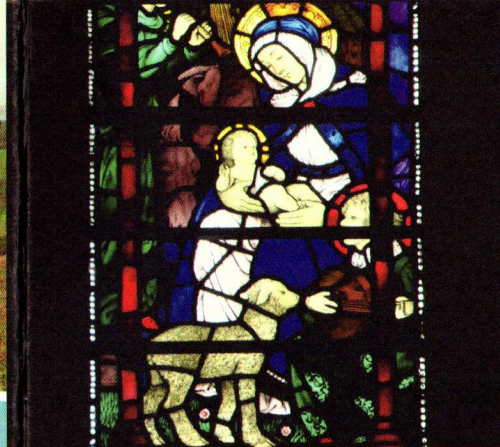

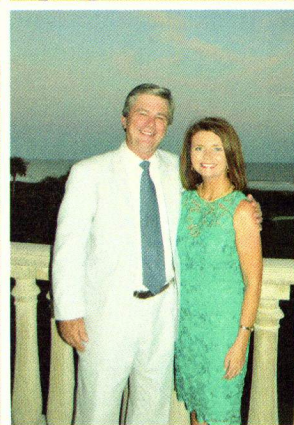

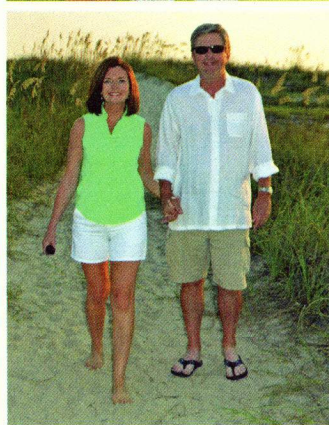

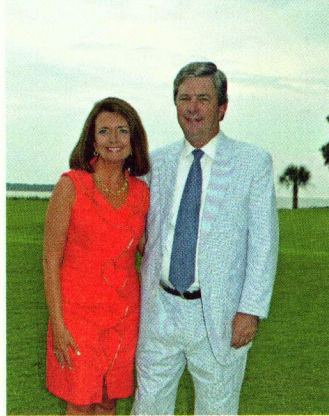

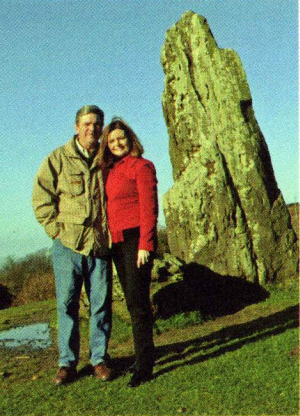

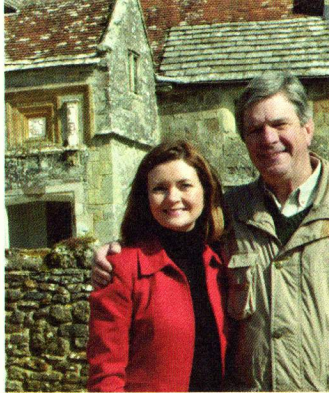

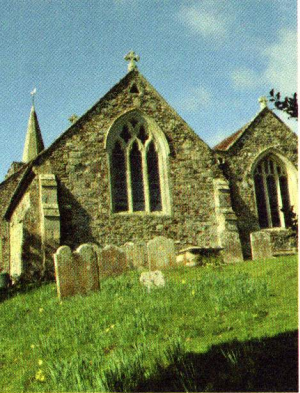

"May the God of hope fill you with all joy and peace as you trust in him, so that you may overflow with hope by the power of the Holy Spirit."
(Romans 15:13)

We wish you a very blessed Christmas and 2015!

Love, Allison and Phil
